The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 715 (House Bill No. 1325), entitled:

An Act providing that the lien of any tax or municipal claim assessed upon or with respect to real property and of any judgment entered therefor and any execution to enforce such lien or judgment shall be limited to the property against which said tax has been assessed and shall not impose personal liability upon the owner of such property except under certain conditions

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the lien of any tax or municipal claim hereafter assessed upon or with respect to any real property within this Commonwealth and of any judgment entered therefor and any revival or revivals thereof and any execution to enforce such lien or judgment shall be limited to the property against or with respect to which such tax or claim has been assessed and such tax claim lien or judgment shall not impose personal liability upon the owner of such property Provided That nothing herein contained shall in any manner limit or affect the rights or interests now or hereafter vested in any mortgagee or judgment creditor to enforce payment of taxes on land bound by the mortgage or judgment from the mortgagor or judgment creditor as the case may be or the rights now or hereafter vested in any party to any express contract to require payment of or reimbursement for payment of any taxes Provided further that this act shall in no wise change the existing law with respect to the rights of such mortgagee judgment creditor or contractee or their respective heirs or assigns to sue for or collect any taxes on land bound by such mortgage or judgment or described by contract

Section 2 All general acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed but this act shall not be construed to repeal any local or special law

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is the bill which I originally asked to be recommitted. It is a bill that disturbs the existing laws of taxes on real estate, and provides that individual responsibility for taxes in the State of Pennsylvania should be removed from the owner of the proper. Although amended it still has the same effect; the amendments merely relate to mortgages and contracts of mortgages between owner and mortgagee; and it still creates a situation in Philadelphia, about which I happen particularly to know, which would be rather injurious to the city.

We have over $38,000,000 of taxes in arrears. I understand that personal responsibility of the property owners for future taxes is to be removed by this bill, and the cities are to be precluded from proceeding against the owners for taxes in the future. In other words, while the bill as amended will not affect taxes due up to the end of 1933, the collection of all taxes from now on will be limited to the property itself, and no municipality can sue the owner if the sale of the property does not produce the taxes. So that, the owner might be receiving rentals for a period of years and, though well able to pay the taxes, would not be obliged, under the provisions of this act, to pay the taxes.

Since 1909, down to 1927 or 1929, there have been laws passed fixing the liability for taxes on the individual owner, the last act giving the cities of the State the right to proceed against the owner. This bill changes that law, and will affect every city in the State, and is especially injurious to Phiadelphia.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, the learned Senator from Philadelphia is a very close student of bills, and that is a very good trait. He has been able to discover a large number of typographical errors and seems to have been able to find something in the law which really should be changed but, like most virtues, it can be carried to extremes and the learned Senator from Philadelphia is in grave danger of falling into this error, because he finds errors where there are none and makes mountains out of mole hills.

And in the particular instance the trouble which he mentions does not exist.

This bill is a short one and I would like to read it to the Senators, in order that they might know what they are voting on. It providies that: "That the lien of any tax or municipal claim hereafter assessed upon or with respect to any real property within this Commonwealth and of any judgment entered therefor and any revival or revivals thereof and any execution to enforce such lien or judgment shall be limited to the property against or with respect to which such tax or claim has been assessed and such tax claim lien or judgment shall not impose personal liability upon the owner of such property Provided That nothing herein contained shall in any manner limit or affect the rights or interests now or hereafter vested in any mortgagee or judgment creditor to enforce payment of taxes on land bound by the mortgage or judgment from the mortgagor or judgment creditor as the case may be or the rights now or hereafter vested in any party to any express contract to require payment of or reimbursement for payment of any taxes Provided further that this act shall in no wise change the existing law with respect to the rights of such mortgagee judgment creditor or contractee or their respective heirs or assigns to sue for or collect any taxes on land bound by such mortgage or judgment or described by contract."

There is a further section "Section 2, All general acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed but this act shall not be construed to repeal any local or special law."

It was the general supposition throughout the state that taxes were limited to the property upon which they were assessed. That is, that if you had a tract in one part of the county which was worthless you could not be compelled to pay that tax any longer than you felt the property was valuable. In other words, you could permit that property to be sold for taxes. But under the decision of the Supreme Court in 1932 it was determined that your personal liability for taxes extended so that you could be sued for the tax upon your land and any other property which you might have might be sold to pay the tax on this worthless piece of property. And the Supreme Court in its dicta went farther and said that you could not dispose of that property unless it was to a bona fide purchaser for value, that you could not make a deed to a straw man and get rid of the property. It was further held in that decision, in effect, that if you had a vacant lot in one part of the town or city and the city determined to extend past that lot a paved street, or to make some improvement, and assessments were made against that lot, you could not let it be sold for a tax lien and thereby relieve yourself of liability, but the city could sue you and proceed against any other property which you might have in that city to collect that tax lien.

Now there are a certain number of local acts with respect to Philadelphia and in order that Philadelphia might be further taken care of as to any rights which it has at present these acts are saved by the present bill. In the session of 1845 the Legislature of Pennsylvania provided that thereafter the treasurer of the county of Philadelphia from and after the passage of this act shall have full power and authority to enforce the payment of taxes now registered and for the purpose of carrying the provisions of this act into effect the city treasurer shall have power to bring suit in the name of the county of Philadelphia. No, that act is not repealed and there are a number of other acts, 1824, 1845, 1846, 1859 and 1865. These acts, a number of them, particularly the one to which I have referred, are considered in this decision of the Supreme Court, in 307 Pennsylvania which was handed down in 1932. These acts have not been repealed prior to this time, and they are not repealed by this bill, which is introduced here, I think that this a very important measure for the citizens of the Commonwealth and I ask that it be approved by the Senate.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I have a great deal of respect for my friend the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy; and I have greater respect now that he calls me "the learned" instead of "the young Senator"; but the facts respecting the bill remain the same, and are these,——and I am speaking at length because I think them important to every citizen: The Senator speaks of acts up to 1865, all of which I have read; and the gentleman very much interested in the passage of this bill has been at my desk for a number of weeks, and I have tried, as much as possible, to help him without hurting the rest of the citizens, particularly of the City of Philadelphia, which I represent; but I am forced to the conclusion that though up until 1865 these tax matters were treated by local acts, since 1909, and up to 1927, they were treated by general acts. Those acts are repealed because they are inconsistent with this act. At present the City of Philadelphia is what we call "sequestering rents," so that owners of the property cannot receive income from the property and at the same time refuse to pay taxes. Under the terms of this bill this right is lost, and the owner of the property could not be proceeded against on his individual responsibility.

Under those circumstances I am obliged to differ with my friend, the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, and say to the Senate that this bill takes away from the cities the right to proceed against owners of property, and gives many corporations owning large office buildings the right to collect rents for a year, keep the rents in the treasury, and pay no taxes or interest on the mortgages.

We are passing laws here which give the Courts the right to restrain sales of real estate, and this act takes away the only chance we would have of collecting those taxes from the individual during the time the sale is stayed; and for that reason I insist that I am not trying to make a mountain out of a mole hill, but that the $38,000,000 is a real mountain and not a mole hill.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I might prolong this discussion further; I might say that the special acts relating to Philadelphia have not been repealed; but I want to call the attention of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, to the fact that this bill applies to the taxes only that will hereafter be assessed. And I think, with regard to the $38,000,000 in Philadelphia, that when they get that collected they will not look up any future claims. But the local laws have been fully protected by this act.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this is the general appropriation bill. I would like to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the chairman of the Appropriation Committee what cuts have been made in this bill from the appropriation of the last regular session?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, there are some cuts that the Conference Committee will have to iron out and I think it will be satisfactory.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the chairman of the Appropriation Committee particularly the percentage, or the amount of the cut in the Department of Justice in this bill?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I think that will be ironed out. Penal section was taken out in the House and any cuts that have been made were taken out in the House and will be taken care of.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the chairman if that is not in the control of the House, whether or not we pass this bill in its present form, whether they would not have that right?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, the bill will naturally go to a Conference Committee.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, is there an agreement with the chairman of the House Appropriation Committee to that effect?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I think so—yes, no question about it.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Appropriation Committee of the Senate, or the chairman thereof, who is the whole committee, if the amount in these appropriations were not corrected in the Senate?

Mr SCOTT. Mr. President, we realized it would naturally go to a conference committee and we did not want to do that work. I think the general appropriation bill will be entirely satisfactory when it comes out finally.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I have no doubt the promises made by the chairman of the Appropriations Committee will be carried out, but in order to keep my own records straight in the matter I propose to vote "no" on this bill, and hope some of my friends will do likewise.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1481 (House Bill No. 1121), entitled:

An Act providing for the discharge or parole of persons serving imprisonment for failure to make restitution under sentence of any court.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1485 (House Bill No. 1738), entitled:

An Act invoking the police power of this Commonwealth staying proceedings to sell real property on foreclosures of first mortgages for the period of eighteen months in certain cases

The first and second sections of the bill were read as follows and agreed to:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in the exercise of the police power for the protection of the public health safety morals and welfare threatened by existing economic conditions and to prevent the unwarranted sale of property on first mortgages or on bonds accompanying the same where the security is adequate all writs of fieri facias venditioni exponas levari facias or any other writ or form of execution instituted to enforce the payment of the principal or any part thereof of any first mortgage on real property where all interest taxes insurance water

The third section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 3 The stay of any execution under this act shall continue the return day of the writ of execution to the first regular return day of such writs which shall occur after a sale held under such writ In the meantime the writ shall remain in full force and effect and sale may be made thereunder without the issuance of an alias or any other writ

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I move to amend bill, page 4, by inserting between lines 12 and 13 the following sections: "Section 4. Before any distriess for rent or final writ to evict any individual lawfully occupying real property in this Commonwealth, either as owner, lesee or occupant under an agreement of sale or otherwise shall be served by any sheriff, constable or other officer or individual having the legal right to serve such distress or writ, a notice in writing of the intention to distrain or to serve such writ shall be given to such individual lawfully in possession as owner, lessee or otherwise, at least five days prior to the actual levy or service of the distress or writ, and within this period of five days, if such individual can show that because of his inability to secure employment, he is unable to pay the amount owing to the plaintiff issuing the distress or writ of eviction or any part thereof, he may petition the court of common pleas of the county in which the premises are located to stay the said levy or writ until such time as the court may deem reasonable and just under all the circumstances. Section 5. The various courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth are hereby enpowered to hear all petitions made under section four of this act and to pass on all questions of the petitioner's ability or inability to secure employment and of his inability to pay the amount owing to the plaintiff about to issue the distress or writ of eviction, and in such cases as the courts may see fit, they may grant stays of the levy or writ of eviction for such period or periods of time as may seem reasonable and just to the court under all the circumstances, and they may continue such stays from time to time as in the opinion of the court may be necessary and just. Section 6. The form of petition to be made to the court of common pleas under section one of this act shall be substantially as follows: IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS ..... COUNTY. TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF THE SAID COURT. The petition of ..... respectfully represents: That he is in the possession of property located at ..... as ..... thereof. That on ..... notice was served upon your petitioner by ..... that a distress for rent (or writ of eviction) is about to be served upon your petitioner. That the family of your petitioner consists of the following persons .... That your petitioner and the members of his family are out of work, cannot secure work and are unable to pay the amount owing to the plaintiff about to issue the said writ (or distress) and that there is no person legally liable for such rent who is willing or able to pay the same. Wherefore your petitioner prays that a rule be granted upon ..... the plaintiff who is about to issue a writ of eviction (or distress) against your petitioner to show cause why a rule should not be granted to stay the issuance of the distress or writ until such time as the court may deem reasonable and just. Section 7 No restraining order or stay, authorized and directed by sections four to six inclusive of this act, shall be in force for a longer period than eighteen months from and after the effective date of this act. Section 8 It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that if this act cannot take effect in its entirety because of the decision of any court holding unconstitutional any part hereof of the remaining provisions of the act shall be given full force and effect as completely as if the part held unconstitutional had not been included herein."

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, before a vote is taken on these amendments I should like to call the attention of the Senate to this bill and the one following on the calendar. The purpose of Senate Bill No. 1485 is to give the courts of common pleas in the various jurisdictions authority to stay writs of execution on first mortgages and first lien judgments where the debtor continues to pay the insurance, taxes, interest, water rent and so forth. Senate Bill No. 1487, which shauld be referred to in connection with this bill, gives the courts of common pleas authority to say writs and evecutions in all cases under such terms as the courts may determine, without any restrictions as to the terms to be imposed upon the debtor.

Senate Bill No. 1487 was reported out of committee on May 3 and if there is any objection to it it will be referred back in order to have a hearing this afternoon. As I understand there are some parties here who would like to be heard.

Now the first bill, Senate Bill 1485, has been passed upon by the committee and I was going to ask that it be recommitted to make a typographical change, recommit it and then report it out again this afternoon.

The purpose of the learned Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, is a laudable one, to aid those who are in distress and unable to pay their rent claim, but I do not know that it is germane to the purpose of this bill and I am afraid by tacking that amendment on to this bill it will endanger the passage of the bill and I believe it is a good one. It is intended for relief of distressed debtors where they continue to pay the interest on their mortgages and liens and taxes and I do not like to see this amendment tacked on because it endangers the passage of the bill.

Mr. REED. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I want to address myself entirely to House Bill 1738 and the amendments which I have introduced.

House Bill 1738 is a bill with which I am in entire accord but in my opinion it does not go far enough to meet the situation existing in Pennsylvania.

House Bill 1738, by its title, is an act invoking the police power in this Commonwealth, staying proceedings to sell real property on foreclosure on first mortgages for a period of eighteen months in certain cases. In addition it provokes the police power to stay writs of eviction distress and other writs of possession, under certain circumstances, and providing the procedure therefor. It is my opinion that to add this provision will not impair the constitutionality of the act and if there is any danger on the ground I have inserted a provision as to the constitutionality, the usual provision, that the fact that one provision may be held by a court to be unconstitutional will not invalidate the other provisions.

Mr. President, I feel that this amendment should be written into this act, if for no other purpose than to fulfill a promise which this Senate has made by resolution. You will recall that during the early part of March we passed a resolution, the Coyne resolution, in which it was resolved that the General Assembly "hereby declares its purpose forthwith to enact suitable legislation more fully to effectuate this resolution," and that was with respect to staying mortgages. The act unamended substantially complies with that resolution, but we also passed the House concurrent resolution which was introduced by Representatives Hoopes, which reads that the Senate and House of Representatives hereby authorize the several courts of common pleas of the several counties of this Commonwealth to stay the execution of all writs of possession until a date not later than April 3, 1933, and be it further resolved that the General Assembly hereby declares its purposes to enact legislation more fully to effectuate this resolution," and so forth, as provided in said Senate resolution. I do not want any member of the Senate to be misguided as to the purpose, or the effect, of the amendments which I have introduced. By the present new section four it is provided that "Before any distress rent or final writ to evict any individual lawfully occupying real property in this Commonwealth, either as owner, lessee or occupant under an agreement of sale or otherwise shall be served by any sheriff, constable or other officer or individual having the legal right to serve such distress or writ, a notice in writing of the intention to distrain or to serve such writ shall be given to such individual lawfully in possession as owner, lessee or otherwise, at least five days prior to the actual levy or service of the distress or writ, and within this period of five days, if such individual can show because of his inability to secure employment, he is unable to pay the rent owing to the plaintiff issuing the distress or writ of eviction or any part thereof, he may petition the court of common pleas of the county in which the premises are located to stay the said levy or writ until such time as the court may deem reasonable and just under all the circumstances."

These amendments therefore limit the possibility of a stay of a distress, or a writ of eviction, to a showing upon the part of the individual that he is out of work, cannot get work, and that there is no legal liability to pay who cannot pay the rent, or the amount due, or any part thereof.

Mr. President, I will cheerfully admit that under ordinary times I would not favor an act of this kind, and by this amendment the time within which it can be put in operation is especially limited to eighteen months from the date that this act shall become effective. It will expire itself before the General Assembly of 1935 convenes. The House of Representatives has passed at least three bills of this general character, the Witkin bill, the Brancato bill and the Hoopes bill. Each one of those three bills has come to the Senate with an almost unanimous vote of the House of Representatives. We are now within one day of the closing of this General Assembly and unless the Senate will pass this bill as amended, I submit, there will be hundreds of our fellow citizens, not only in Dauphin county, but throughout the Commonwealth, who may be and will be evicted from their homes for no other reason than that we have an economic condition which prevents the head of the household from obtaining any work.

Last Friday I was waited upon by a committee of sixteen men, representing various units of the unemployed of Dauphin county, beseeching me to urge the passage of a bill of this kind. Within the past ten days I had laid upon my desk at least four distresses for rent and I, as an attorney, powerless, to prevent unless the Legislature of Pennsylvania grants relief, and in each one of those cases the small amount of personal belongings belonging to a man who was out of work and had been out of work for weeks and months because he could not obtain work would be levied upon.

In my judgment, gentlemen, there is no more important provision before this Assembly. We have enacted legislation to take care of various people in our communities, but, I submit, that unless this Senate will read it into this act and adopt it as law, we will adjourn without doing anything whatever for those who are in the most dire distress. I have written this amendment with care this morning, sitting here on the floor of this Senate at six o'clock this morning in order to be able to prepare this amendment, and I am here to urge, gentlemen of the Senate, that this bill be amended and that its passage be not delayed.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Somesret, Mr. Ealy.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, whether the remarks that he made were directed to Senate Bill No. 1485?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, the amendments proposed were to be inserted in Senate Bill 1485.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator whether he discovered any typographical errors in the bill that is now before us?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, in Senate Bill 1485, yes. The title will have to be amended to agree with that body of the bill as amended in the Senate Judiciary General Committee. There is also one othr provision of the bill which, I think, will have to be amended, the proceedings before the writ of execution has been issued. In my view the bill will have to be amended as to the proceedings subsequent to the issuance of a writ of execution.

Mr. SYNDER. Mr. President, the reason the inquiry is made, I understood the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, to say he had discovered errors in the bill and that would necessitate a correction of those errors, or to prevent a conflict of legislation this bill should go back to committee.

I am in sympathy with the purpose of these amendments, because I think it has correctly been stated that we, by the passage of resolution, have rather promised the people that such a law as covered by these amendments would be enacted, but if the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary General, in his capacity as Chairman, has discovered a reason why it should go back I would naturally yield to his opinion in the matter. I call attention, however, to the fact that we have passed legislation benefitting owners here in the Senate and as far as I know we have done nothing whatsoever for the tenants. Were these amndments now in a position where they could be voted upon I certainly should vote for the amendments, but for the reason stated by the Chairman of the Committee of Judiciary General I will yield in my consideration of this matter to his opinion as to the necessity for recommitting this bill to committee.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, if this bill is sent back to the committee for the purpose of considering these amendments which are proposed by the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, I should like to have a complete membership of the committee there, as these amendments touch a vital point in the body of the bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the bill under consideration, Senate Bill No. 1485 (House Bill No. 1738), be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General without considering the amendments offered by the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, but for the purpose of further consideration.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I object. The amendments were offered by me, and, as I understand, the amendments are before the Senate.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I ask that the Senate vote on the amendments.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, is it not a fact that these amendments you are now offering have been considered by the Committee on Judiciary General; and is it not a fact that the Committee has rejected these amendments?

Mr. REED. Substantially that is correct; but I would make this explanation, to answer the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman: When I introduced a bill, myself, which substantially carried these amendments, and that was rejected by the Committee, the House bills, as far as I know, of a similar nature, had not been acted upon by the Committee.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I listened quite attentively to the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, and I cannot agree to say I would take second place anywhere, after any man, in his effort to help the unemployed of Pennsylvania. I think my attitude during this session will verify that situation. But this is confiscation of real property. I do not believe that constitutionally any Court in the land would support it, because what these amendments do is really this: It takes from the owner of every piece of real estate his entire authority, and takes the ownership away from him. My friend might say it is subject to the discretion of the Court. Well, Courts are no different from Senators. We are all in politics. And very often, in our anxiety to serve we go beyond the limits of common justice; and very often, besides that, for selfish purposes,—for the purpose of getting the goodwill of the voters at an election we do those things that, in our better judgment, we know are neither honest, fair nor upright. I find no fault with the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, in trying to incur the goodwill of the voters of Dauphin County, because on that goodwill depends whether or not he, or any of us, will return to any legislative body; but sometimes it is rather unfair if, to advocate our own cause, we go down into the pockets of our fellow citizens; and no man, no Court of Justice or no law of the land should be passed wherein someone else would have the right or authority to be benefited by sticking his hand in my pockets and spending my money for his aggrandizement or his election, or for the purpose of satisfying some of those people in whom he may be interested.

While there may be some hardships in levies, and there may be some poor that are unable to pay their rent, if that condition arises, as it does and will arise, we have made provisions in the State of Pennsylvania, we have made provisions in our National Government, in appropriating millions and millions of dollars to take care of such a condition as this. And who pays all this money? It surely cannot come from those who have no money. It surely cannot come from the unemployed. It must come from those who have some money left in their possession; and among those who have some little money in their possession are the owners of real property. They are the ones that still have something left, and they are paying taxes right and left in order that these moneys may be gotten together for the purpose of taking care of the unemployed.

And it is perfectly right and proper that those who have any funds in their possession should be taxed; and I still contend, as I contended in the beginning of this session, that dance around as we may, argue as we will, and send out political propaganda to the effect that there shall be no further taxation, the time is here, it is going to face us, and if not in this session it is going to be a special session,—those who still have money must pay; this Commonwealth and this Government must raise money, they must raise money by taxation, somebody has got to pay the freight to support these poor people. And this political propaganda, that is only political propaganda, advocated by all sides in this political era, that we are in,—whether it be of the Governor or the members of this Senate, whether of the Republican or Democratic Party,—it does not make any difference, they are all playing one game, and that game is to hoodwink the public and say there will be no taxation.

You cannot go on. We are now up against a stone wall. Taxes must come, whether we like it or not; and those few of us who may have something left must pay. It cannot be done otherwise. You cannot pay bills without money, and new taxes must be found; and they will be found, whether we like it or not. But it is not fair, and this is not fair, to take away from those few who have something left, by law, that which we have no right to take. This is confiscation of public property.

These amendments here, with due respect to my friend from Dauphin County, Mr. Reed, but I know,—I do not know whether to say it here, but it is a political play, and it is to get the goodwill of the unemployed, because the vote cast by an unemployed man is just as big as the vote of the Governor of this Commonwealth. Now, let us not, for the sake of politics, and let us not, for the sake of getting the goodwill of some of our neighbors, do something that is unfair, unjust, unAmerican. No man has the right to be good-hearted by digging his hands in the other man's pocket. Let us, rather, be red-blooded; let us be fair, let us, rather, be generous and dig as deep as we can dig, and in a legal, honest, fair way meet the issue; and meeting the issue can be done only by one thing, and that is—new taxation. People do not like it. I have heard a lot that we will have no more taxes. We will have taxes, as sure and as positively as the sun rises and the sun sets, unless some unforeseen condition will arise.

Now, let us stop kidding ourselves; let us stop kidding the public; and make our minds up that we have got to face the issue.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I have listened with a great deal of attention to the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, and from his standpoint the amendments offered by him may accomplish the purpose which he desires to accomplish for his constituents; but, Mr. President, we have to look further and see the effect of these amendments, if adopted and passed, on the whole State of Pennsylvania.

In the City of Philadelphia, Mr. President, we have hundreds of building and loan associations which are insolvent today and in the hands of the Department of Banking, a great many of them; and those building and loan associations own hundreds of houses which they have had to take over on second mortgages, and which are subject to first-mortgage liens, which are subject to the payment of taxes and water rents, and those associations are trying to carry those properties through the collection of rents, in order that they may pay the taxes on them, and the mortgage interest which accrues on the mortgagees carrying those properties; and if we are going to pass those amendments in this bill what is going to become of the poor people's savings which are invested in those building and loan associations, in Philadelphia particularly and generally over the State? This would prevent the properties in the hands of building and loan associations, from which they are collecting rentals, from having to pay the carrying charges; and whatever equity those building and loan associations have in those properties of poor people, the savings and earnings of our workers, would be wiped out and swept away by the foreclosures in these months. If the rents are not paid, the building and loan associations, or other owners, cannot pay the carrying charges, and instead of helping the economic condition I submit to this Senate that the adoption of these amendments would make it worse, and instead of causing less sheriff's sales would increase the number of sheriffs' sales, and the building and loan associations would lose the equities in those properties.

So, it seems to me we must be very careful, and should not in a half-heaterd, slipshod way, pass amendments offered on the floor without due and careful consideration.

These amendments, or similar ones, as admitted by the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, were duly considered by the Committee on Judiciary General; and in the solemnity of their deliberations these amendments were rejected, and properly so, and I ask the Senate to stand by the action of that Committee, and to vote down these amendments at this time. There is nothing in the situation menioned by the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, with reference to the passage of a resolution, for the very resolution which he read provided that the moratorium declared in the resolution expired April 3rd; and if you look at the record of this Senate you will find that that resolution was not adopted until after April 3rd; so there is nothing in the resolution he speaks of which committed this Senate to do or not to do anything. This Senate passed a resolution declaring a moratorium on evictions after the date mentioned in the resolution had passed; and I submit to this Senate that it is very material and very proper that we should not insert these amendments.

As for myself, personally, it makes no difference to me, personally, because I am not the owner of any real estate that amounts to anything, especially that is occupied by tenants; but I do have an interest in the people of this State who do own small equities in real estate. Building and loan associations, individuals, corporations,—why, Mr. President, the biggest corporations in this country could take advantage of this act if we were to pass it, corporations that pay thousands of dollars a month, possibly, if they could get the sanction of the courts; and I submit that these amendments should be voted down now, once and for all.

Mr. REED. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I do not want to delay this discussion unnecessarily, but there are two or three statements that have been made today to which I feel I must reply. I fail to see, Mr. President, how the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, can make the statement that any large corporation can take advantage of these amendments. They are drawn entitrely in the interest of the individual home owner; and I believe, if my friend, the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will read them carefully he will come to that conclusion.

The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, said, or made the statement, that those who have money should pay, and I agree with that statement; but I am simply providing, in these amendments, for the individual who cannot pay because he cannot get work, and in order to get a stay he must appear in the Court of Common Pleas and establish that fact to the satisfaction of a Common Please Judge of this Commonwealth. A notice is given,— only a five-day delay,—and then the individual has the right to appear in the court, and he must establish certain facts in order to get a stay,—that he does not have money, that he cannot get work, and that there is no one legally liable for the support of himself or his family.

Now, I submit, gentlemen, I regard that as a fair proposition. I would be the last member of this Senate to try to write into the law of Pennsylvania any provision which would protect a dead beat. I am not seeking here to protect the man who may have some property or who may have some wages; I am trying here to protect the man who is down and out; and I submit that an examination of those amendments will convince any Senator that my object has been secured.

Now, on this question of constitutionality, I have given this subject the best consideration I know how. I do not know, I cannot say what any Common Please Court, or the Supreme Court, would decide; but I do say, Mr. President, after having examined the law and having examined some notable cases, both State and Federal, that I believe there is a very fair chance that it will be sustained in the courts; and I resent any imputation made upon me that I am simply introducing an amendment for political effect which I know to be unconstitutional. I do not know it to be unconstitutional, and it is my belief that it will be sustained in the courts.

The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, also has said I am playing simply for political effect. I amphatically deny that assertion. The people of Dauphin County elected me to represent them, and I am to represent, as I conceive it, all classes of society equally; and when the members of the unemployed come to me I feel, Mr. President, it is my duty to give their plea the same consideration that I would give to any other class of my constituents.

I believe that these amendments are necessary not only in Dauphin County but elsewhere throughout Pennsylvania. It was only a few days ago I read in a Philadelphia paper that a constable who was serving a distress under circumstances like this was shot down. I submit this is a serious consideration, and in behalf of the unemployed of this State I ask this Senate not to send this bill back to committee or to kill it, but to see to it that it becomes law.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if this were an ordinary measure I would think the mattter had been sufficiently discussed, but I think there has been confusion created; and because of the importance of it I would point out that there are two bills here, Senate Bill No. 1485 and Senate Bill No. 1487; that Senate Bill No. 1485 provides for a stay of execution on all mortgage sales, but the person getting the stay must pay the taxes and interest on the property; and that Senate Bill No. 1487 relates not only to dwelling houses but also to business property. Senate Bill No. 1485, though a more flexible act, applies to dwelling houses and farm houses only. Under the circumstances, if you read the amendments offered by the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, you will find that what he is doing is practically adding provisions from Senate Bill No. 1487 as amendments to Senate Bill No. 1485, but without retaining the flexibility of the latter. In other words, if to Senate Bill No. 1485 are added the amendments of Senator Reed, you will have a bill containing the provisions of Senate Bill No. 1487, but there will be no flexibility to the bill at all. Senate Bill No. 1487 provides that any Court, upon petition and proper showing, may extend a levy, or postpone a levy from time to time; and may impose such conditions as it deems necessary or proper under the circumstances.

So I suggest that we send both bills back to committee, and report out today the bill which would improve the situation and meet the objections of the Senators. I agree with the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, that under Senate Bill No. 1487 even a corporation could go in and ask for a stay; but under Senate Bill No. 1485 this right would be restricted to home owners and owners of farm lands with houses on them, and, according to its terms, under such conditions as may be necessary, not only where the owner is suffering from unemployment but where he may be suffering from a condition other than that of unemployment, such as inopportune time to sell. Also, under Senate Bill No. 1485 a second mortgage cannot be foreclosed when it will be to the detriment of the first mortgagee; and it takes care of not only unemployment but also of economic conditions. So, it seems to me that of the two bills the only bill of real value is Senate Bill No. 1485; and I may say to the members of the Senate that Senate Bill No. 1485 was drawn under the supervision of the Attorney General's Department, and is, in their opinion, constitutional.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. REED and Mr. KRAUSE, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—34

Armstrong,	Graff,	Norton,	Roberts,
Batchelor,	Harris,	Owlett,	Scott,
Baumer,	Harvey,	Parkinson,	Shapiro,
Bell,	Howell,	Pethick,	Snyder,
Bennett,	Krause,	Prince,	Sordoni,
Boyd,	Lanius,	Quigley,	Thompson,
Brandt,	Mansfield,	Reed,	Williamson,
Einstein,	McClure,	Rice,	Ziesenheim,
Gelder,	Miller,

NAYS—12

Aron,	Clark,	Frazier,	Salus,
Buckman,	Ealy,	Homsher,	Sones,
Chapman,	Fay,	Pierson,	Trainer,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The fourth section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 4 This act shall become effective immediately upon enactment but nothing herein contained shall permit the stay of writs of execution as aforesaid beyond the first day of February one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I move to amend section 4, page 4, line 13, by striking out the figure "4" and inserting in lieu thereof: "9."

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The title of the bill was read as follows:

An Act invoking the police power of this Commonwealth staying proceedings to sell real property on foreclosures of first mortgages for the period of eighteen months in certain cases.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I move to amend title, page 1, line 3 of title, by inserting after the word "mortgages" the following: "and writs of eviction, distress and other writs of possession under certain circumstances, and providing procedure therefor."

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1485 (House Bill No. 1738), the bill just read, be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I simply wish to say that the only suggestion which has been made for the abandonment of House Bill No. 1738 is in view of a few structural amendments; and, if necessary, they can be made very early tomorrow, under unanimous consent; and I ask that the Senate vote down this motion to recommit.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, my reason for making the suggestion is, I would like to follow it up with a motion for the purpose of amending the second bill,—to recommit the second bill, in the same manner, without having the Committee on Judiciary General to reconsider another bill on the same subject; and have the Committee on Judiciary General report it out this afternoon.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

BILL ON SECOND READING

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, this session of the Legislature is soon to close. In many respects it has been most difficult for all those concerned; but there have been logical and natural reasons for this condition. Many people throughout the State who are unfamiliar with the magnitude of the tasks confronting the members exclaim in wonder and amazement at the seeming waste of time and money in holding a biennial session, at the apparent confusion and lack of system and method involved in the making of laws, and at the failure of plan and organization to work with perfect harmony and accord. Such things seem inevitable in a democracy. If it were possible to have as a ruler one who is all-wise and just, and such a Saturnian reign were to be permanent from generation to generation then might it best best to change to an absolute monarchy. Then could the Legislature be abolished entirely or be called merely to register the will of the leader. But we have not been able to find such a man in Pennsylvania and are not yet ready to follow a Mussolini or a Hitler; and hence, even in normal times, the enactment of laws is attended with great difficulty, because of the large population of the State and the great diversity of its interests.

We can perhaps appreciate better this thought when we remember that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is larger in area than such national units as Denmark, Holland, Portugal, Belgium, Greece, Hungary, Switzerland and many other nations in various parts of the world; that it is larger in population than any of the countries I have mentioned and such others as Norway, Sweden, Finland, Ireland and Scotland; that its population is about the same as that of all Canada, and of Argentina in South America, and larger than any other South American or Central American State, except only Mexico and Brazil.

Furthermore, to population of a cosmopolitan type is to be added the diversity of interest—Pennsylvania is a great mineral State, a great manufacturing State, a great agricultural State. It is a veritable empire. Between the densely populated areas of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and Scranton and the sparsely-settled regions of Forest and Cameron Counties, there is a vast difference. The anthracite coal counties have little in common with the purely agricultural lands of Lancaster or York. The building of roads, the adaptation of our school system to the needs of the 67 counties of the State so strangely divergent, manufacturing of all kinds, dairying, agriculture, fishing, hunting, sports, beverages, unemployment, utilities—these, and a thousand other problems, claim our attention.

In normal times the framing of legislation, elastic enough to meet the local needs of our people demands the consideration of the best minds: but in these dire days of economic street the problem is increased many fold. To relieve unemployment and at the same time to lift the burden of taxation in the face of falling revenues, has been well nigh impossible.

I think it must be conceded by all who are candid, that more real, earnest, sincere effort to provide and carry into effect a comprehensive program has been put forth by the members of the Senate and House, by the officers of the government and many other citizens actuated by a desire to help, than at any previous session for a long time. These efforts have been nullified, in part, by the condition of the times and by the natural desire of some not to see their own special interests or departments suffer unduly and by the selfishness of some who are not willing to share in bearing the burdens imposed on the State in this crisis. So that the result of the Session will not be all that anyone desired or hoped for, but the best possible under all the circumstances.

It must not be forgotten also that in one respect our system of government is quite unlike that of democracies like Great Britain. There the Prime Minister is, or may be, a leader only and subject to the will of Parliament, but here the executive is a part and a highly important part of the Legislative Branch; for while laws may be passed when a constitutional majority of the members of both Houses approve, the Governor may defeat the will of one less than two-thirds of the members by his veto. And in practice by the threat of that veto as to certain legislation, he may enforce the enactment of other laws desired by him. So that in effect very much that is or is not accomplished depends upon the Governor himself.

In the present session we have been impressed by the number of bills which have been introduced in the Legislature to correct troubles or to relieve distress. We all have the greatest sympathy for those suffering especially, under present conditions. We have tried to lend our aid for every means of legitimate relief—no one in this State must starve for want of food. From the appropriations made for the purpose some form of employment should be provided temporarily for those unable to secure work. But in the matter of legislation care must be taken not to do more harm than good. As too much medicine retards rather than assists nature in healing physical disease, so too many laws may delay the return of economic health.

The Legislature may be called harsh names for refusing to pass many bills offered with good intention for the avowed purpose of aiding those alleged to be in want. Many of these bills simply tend to shift the burden of relief from the public to those whose small accumulations of property are already severely strained to meet the mounting load of taxation. Property rights obtained by vast efforts through many years of legitimate work should not be endangered, because a few have unduly profited in an unlawful way. Also many bills introduced were intended to relieve purely local troubles. Laws, however, cannot be made for every specific case. The times call for conservatism and sound thinking rather than radicalism and demagogic theories propounded with inflammatory language. The State asks that industrialist and laborer, landlord and tenant, business man, farmer, office holder—one and all join in the spirit of accord, of patience, of patriotic and unselfish effort to overcome the present stress and to sustain the hands of those who are working to that end.

I have not, by any means, been entirely satisfied with what we have done. Some laws have been passed which in my humble opinion are bad, some failed which I desired, but taking it by and large, when the Legislature has passed into history and a calm reckoning is made, I am sure that general credit will be given for what it has accomplished under such adverse circumstances, and I believe not the least of its accomplishments will be the fact that it has refused to sanction many measures which would have greatly retarded the economic recovery of the Commonwealth and have tended to plunge it deeper in distress.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. SCOTT,

That Rule 38, which requires reports of committees on nominations made by the Governor to lie on the table one day, be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon all the nominations reported at today's session.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. SCOTT,

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nominations reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

Mr. PIERSON. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EALY, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1487 (House Bill No. 1903), entitled:

An Act authorizing courts of common pleas to stay writs of execution against and tax sales of certain real property in certain cases; providing for the continuance of return days of writs of execution; and authorizing sales thereon without issuance of further writs.

Also from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as amended, the following resolution:

CORRECTING PRINTING ERRORS IN LAWS

In the House of Representatives, April 26, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That where any law shall have been finally enacted and it shall be ascertained that such law is technically defective in form or contains misspelled words or typographical errors, or the plural or signular appears where the opposite should be used, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, in punctuating and editing such law, shall have authority, with the approval of the President pro tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Attorney General and the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, to correct the original copy of such law as filed in the Department of State if such correction will not in any manner affect or change the meaning, intent or substance of such law; and be it further

Resolved, That whenever any correction on any law is made as hereinbefore authorized, a notation thereof shall be made on the original copy by the Secretary of the Commonwealth together with his signature, followed by the approval and signatures of the President pro tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Attorney General and the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I move that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection?

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EALY (for Senator Williamson), from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as amended, the following resolution:

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE INCREASING COST OF EDUCATION

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1933.

Whereas, The legislation introduced and pending during this Session of the Legislature on school matters has brought to those who have been devoting their time to school affairs a knowledge of the increasing load of taxation for school purposes that is being forced upon the taxpayer, and

Whereas, It has become evident that the property owner can no longer endure the payment of the excessive tax rate that is imposed upon him by reason of the requirements of the school law and that school districts will become bankrupt and their schools closed if no relief is afforded, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a committee of three Senators to be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate and four Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House is hereby constituted a Legislative Committee to investigate the cause of the increasing cost of education to the school districts and methods whereby such cost can be reduced.

Such committee shall make a report of their investigation to the next Session of the Legislature and shall accompany their report with recommendations of any changes it feels would result in lowering the cost to local communities of conducting their schools and with copies of drafts of bills intended to carry out its recommendations.

The members of said committee shall receive no compensation for their services.

Also from the Committee on Judiciary General reported as committed, the following resolution:

SALARY REDUCTIONS—STATE GOVERNMENT OFFICERS AND EMPLOYES

In the Senate, May 2, 1933.

Whereas, The continuance of the economic depression has seriously affected the revenues of the State government and necessitates the greatest economy and reduction in State governmental costs during the next fiscal biennium in order that the budget may be balanced and the unemployed cared for; and

Whereas, The salaries paid to public officers and employes constitute an appreciable part of the cost of government; and

Whereas, The income of public officers and employes has not been affected by the depression to the same degree as that of persons employed in commerce and industry; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That it is the sense of the General Assembly that the salary and compensation of all public officers and employes of the executive and legislative departments of the State government should be reduced during the next fiscal biennium beginning June 1, 1933, and that those officers and agencies charged with the fixing of salaries and compensation of public employes should reduce all salaries and compensation in accordance with this resolution.

Resolved, That all public officers of the executive and legislative departments of the State government whose salaries under the Constitution cannot be reduced during the terms for which they were respectively elected or appointed, be requested and urged to agree voluntarily to accept reductions in their salaries and to authorize requisitions for salaries during the next fiscal biennium to be drawn in reduced amounts in accordance with the terms of this resolution.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly that such reductions in salaries and compensation for the fiscal biennium beginning June 1, 1933, should be in accordance with the following standards:

(a) Salaries and compensation amounting to $1000 and less should not be reduced;

(b) Salaries and compensation amounting to more than $1000 per annum or for a stated period, should be reduced by an amount equal to 10% of the difference between the present salary or compensation and the sum of $1000.

(c) That no per diem compensation amounting to $2.40 per day or less shall be reduced, and per diem compensation amounting to more than $2.40 per day should be reduced by an amount equal to 10% of the difference between the present per diem compensation and $2.40.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Mr. BELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BELL, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, the following resolution:

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE DEPARTMENT OF BANKING WITH RESPECT TO CLOSED BANKS

In the Senate, April 26, 1933.

Whereas, The continued depreciation of the value of securities has brought about a material shrinking of the assets of closed banks now being liquidated by the Department of Banking; and

Whereas, There are many complaints that an unduly large percentage of the assets of corporations in receivership are used up in the expenses of receiverships and in the payment of salaries and fees; and

Whereas, It is the desire of the General Assembly that the assets of closed banks be preserved to the fullest extent for the benefit of depositors therein and creditors; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint three members of the House of Representatives, who, together, shall constitute a joint legislative committee, whose duty it shall be to investigate the affairs of the Department of Banking with respect to closed banks and other closed financial institutions, to ascertain whether the assets of such banks and institutions are being carefully preserved, the affairs of such institutions economically administered, and the assets of such institutions liquidated to the best advantage for the interests of creditors and depositors;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases;

Resolved, That said committee shall make report of its findings to the next session of the General Assembly.

Mr. BELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object and ask that the resolution will lie over under the rules.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SCOTT, from the Committee on Appropriations, re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 185, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Also from the Committee on Appropriations re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 223, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Downingtown Industrial and Agricultural School Downingtown Pennsylvania

Also from the Committee on Appropriations re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 244, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Board of Trustees of the Philadelphia Museum.

Also from the Committee on Appropriations re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 253, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Moore Institute of Art Science and Industry Philadelphia School of Design for Women at Philadelphia Pennsylvania.

An Act making an appropriation to the Pennsylvania Museum and School of Industrial Art, Philadelphia.

Also from the Committee on Appropriations, re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 888 (House Bill No. 2174), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare to pay for the care, treatment, removal and maintenance of the indigent insane in Dixmont Hospital, at Dixmont, Allegheny County.

Also from the Committee on Appropriations, re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 889 (House Bill No. 2175), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare to pay for the care, treatment, removal and maintenance of the indigent insane in county and poor district hospitals.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 1367 (HOUSE BILL No. 1866)

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1367 (House Bill No. 1866), entitled:

An Act to further amend section one of the act, approved the thirteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seven (P. L. 640) entitled "An act to provide revenue by levying a tax upon the shares of stock of companies incorporated under the provisions of section twenty-nine of an act entitled 'An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations' approved April twenty-ninth one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four and the supplements thereto for the insurance of owners or real estate mortgages and others interested in real estate from loss by reason of defective titles liens and encumbrances and of companies entitled to the benefits of and of companies having any of the powers of companies entitled 'An act conferring upon certain fidelity insurance safety deposit trust and savings companies the powers and privileges of companies incorporated under the provisions of section twenty-nine of an act entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations" approved April twenty-nine, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four and of the supplements thereto' approved June twenty-seventh one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five commonly known as title insurance of trust companies," by further modifying the procedure for the settlement collection and payment of the State tax on the stock of title insurance and trust companies and by extending the tax imposed upon the stock of such companies to include the stock of any title insurance company bank and trust company or trust company organized under any law superseding or supplying existing laws pertaining to the organization and powers of such companies.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 1485 (HOUSE BILL No. 1738)

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1485 (House Bill No. 1738), entitled:

An Act invoking the police power of this Commonwealth staying proceedings to sell real property on foreclosures of first mortgages for the period of eighteen months in certain cases passed second reading.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. REED. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, the amendments I wish to offer have been given to me by Senator Ealy, Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee, to clarify some of the provisions in the bill as it appeared before it was amended this morning. I made the statement this morning that I would offer amendments if they were submitted to me. Therefore I ask unanimous consent that these amendments be considered. They do not change the provisions of the bill but clarify them.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1485 (House Bill No. 1738), entitled:

An Act invoking the police power of this Commonwealth staying proceedings to sell real property on foreclosures of first mortgages for the period of eighteen months in certain cases.

The first section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in the exercise of the police power for the protection of the public health safety morals and welfare threatened by existing economic conditions and to prevent the unwarranted sale of property on first mortgages or on bonds accompanying the same where the security is adequate all writs of fieri facias venditioni exponas levari facias or any other writ or form of execution instituted to enforce the payment of the principal or any part thereof of any first mortgage on real property where all interest taxes insurance water rent and other charges on such mortgaged premises other than the principal of such mortgage and taxes for the current year have been paid and where the mortgaged property has not already been sold and where on petition of the owner of the mortgaged premises it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the court of common pleas that the security is adequate and the mortgage debtor is unable to pay the whole or any part of the principal of such mortgage then unpaid and taxes for the current year by reason of the present economic conditions the court may make a special order restraining the sale for a period of not exceeding eighteen months from and after the effective date of this act and if such petition is presented and such order made before such writ is issued no such proceeding shall be commenced during such period and providing further that during said stay of eighteen months or portion thereof granted by the Court as herein provided the owner of such mortgaged premises shall pay all interest taxes insurance water rent and other charges on such mortgaged premises other than the principal as said charges accrue by the terms of said bond and mortgage otherwise the stay granted by the Court shall immediately cease and determine and upon filing of an averment of default by the holder of such mortgage setting forth said default the prothonotary sheriff and other officers shall forthwith proceed with such writ of execution with the same force and effect as if no stay of proceedings was granted

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I move to amend section 1, page 2, line 1, by striking out the word "instituted" and substitute in lieu thereof the word "issued";also page 3, line 9, by striking out after the word "act" the following: "and if such petition is presented and such order made before such writ is issued no such proceeding shall be commenced during such period."

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. PRESIDENT, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second section of the bill was read as follows and agreed to:

Section 2 Like proceedings as aforesaid may be had for staying writs of execution on any first lien judgment not entered on a bond accompanying a mortgage under similar conditions and upon like terms for payment of interest taxes insurance water rent and other charges on the premises bound by such judgment

The third section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 3 The stay of any execution under this act shall continue the return day of the writ of execution to the first regular return day for such writs which shall occur after a sale held under such writ In the meantime the writ shall remain in full force and effect and sale may be made thereunder without the issuance of an alias or any other writ.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I move to amend bill, page 4, by inserting between lines 12 and 13 the following section: "Section 4. Before any distress for rent or final writ to evict any individual lawfully occupying real property in this Commonwealth, either as owner, lessee or occupant under an agreement of sale or otherwise shall be served by any sheriff, constable or other officer or individual having the legal right to serve such distress or writ, a notice in writing of the intention to distrain or to serve such writ shall be given to such individual lawfully in possession as owner, lessee or otherwise, at least five days prior to the actual levy or service of the distress or writ, and within this period of five days, if such individual can show that because of his inability to secure employment, he is unable to pay the amount owing to the plaintiff issuing the distress or writ of eviction or any part thereof, he may petition the court of common pleas of the county in which the premises are located to stay the said levy or writ until such time as the court may deem reasonable and just under all the circumstances. Section 5. The various courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth are hereby empowered to hear all petitions made under section four of this act and to pass on all questions of the petitioner's ability or inability to secure employment and of his inability to pay the amount owing to the plaintiff about to issue the distress or writ of eviction, and in such cases as the courts may see fit, they may grant stays of the levy or writ of eviction for such period or periods of time as may seem reasonable and just to the court under all the circumstances, and they may continue such stays from time to time as in the opinion of the court may be necessary and just. Section 6. The form of petition to be made to the court of common pleas under section one of this act shall be substantially as follows: "IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS ..... COUNTY. TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF THE SAID COURT. The petition of ..... respectfully represents: That he is in the possession of property located at ..... as ..... thereof. That on ..... notice was served upon your petitioner by ..... that a distress for rent (or writ of eviction) is about to be served upon your petitioner. That the family of your petitioner consists of the following persons .... That your petitioner and the members of his family are out of work, cannot secure work and are unable to pay the amount owing to the plaintiff about to issue the said writ (or distress) and that there is no person legally liable for such rent who is willing or able to pay the same. Wherefore your petitioner prays that a rule be granted upon .....the plaintiff who is about to issue a writ of eviction (or distress) against your petitioner to show cause why a rule should not be granted to stay the issuance of the distress or writ until such time as the court may deem reasonable and just. Section 7. No restraining order or stay, authorized and directed by sections four to six inclusive of this act, shall be in force for a longer period than eighteen months from and after the effective date of this act. Section 8. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that if this act cannot take effect in its entirety because of the decision of any court holding unconstitutional any part hereof of the remaining provisions of the act shall be given full force and effect as completely as if the part held unconstitutional had not been included herein."

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Wil the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

The fourth section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 4 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment but nothing herein contained shall permit the stay of writs of execution as aforesaid beyond the first day of February one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I move to amend section 4, page 4, line 13, by striking out the figures "42" and inserting in lieu thereof "9."

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The title of the bill was read as follows:

An Act invoking the police power of this Commonwealth staying proceedings to sell real property on foreclosures of first mortgages for the period of eighteen months in certain cases.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend title by striking out the word "staying" and substituting in lieu thereof the following: "and authorizing Courts of Common pleas to stay writs of execution"; also second line of title by striking out the word "proceedings"; amend third line of title by inserting after the word "mortgages" and before the words "and writs of eviction" the following: "and on first lien judgments"; also third line of title by inserting after the word "of" the following: "not exceeding"; also last line of title by adding after the word "cases" the following: "and providing for the continuance of return days of such writs and authorizing sales without issuance of further writs."

HOUSE MESSAGES

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO MAKE AN INVESTIGATION OF INSURANCE DEPARTMENT AND INSURANCE COMPANIES

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Appropriations:

In the House of Representatives, April 27, 1933.

Whereas, Charges have been made of improper practices in the Insurance Department with respect to the doing of business by casualty and fire insurance companies inadequately financed, and with respect to the merger of certain companies and their withdrawal from the State Treasury of assets deposited for the protection of insured persons; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint three Senators, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three Members of the House of Representatives, who, together, shall constitute a joint legislative committee, whose duty it shall be to investigate the affairs and records of the Insurance Department, relating to casualty and fire insurance companies, to ascertain whether certain companies are permitted to do business in this Commonwealth when inadequately financed, "or otherwise operating in violation of the insurance laws of this Commonwealth," and to ascertain whether mergers or consolidations of casualty companies approved by the Department have been made in accordance with law, and whether securities withdrawn from the Treasury Department, if any, after any such merger or consolidation, have been legally withdrawn;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall willfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonewalth in such cases.

MOORISH-AMERICAN SOCIETY OF PHILADELPHIA AND USE OF THEIR NAMES

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Corporations:

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1933.

Many sons and daughters of that proud and handsome race which inspired the architecture of Northern Africa and carried into Spain the influence of its artistic temperament have become citizens of this Nation.

In the City of Philadelphia, there exists a Moorish-American Society made up of Moors who have found here the end of their quest for a home, and of the children of those who journeyed here from the plains of Morocco.

This Society has done much to bring about a thorough absorption by these people of those principles which are necessary to make them good American citizens.

These Moorish-Americans have, since being here, missed the use of the titles and names annexations that were so familiar at home and which are used in accordance with the doctrines of the religious faith to which they are adherents; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House commends the Moorish-American Society of Philadelphia for the efficient service it has rendered the Nation in bringing about a speedy and thorough americanization of these former Moors, and that in accordance with the fullest right of religious independence guaranteed every citizens, we recognize also the right of these people to use the name affixes—El, or Ali, or Bey, or any other prefix or suffix to which they have heretofore been accustomed to use or which they may hereafter acquire the right to use.

CONCERNING SHERIFF SALES AND PROVIDING FOR THE STAYING OF CERTAIN ONES IN THE SHERIFFS HANDS

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Judiciary General:

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1933.

Whereas, The great number of sheriff's sales of both real and personal property during the present period of unemployment and financial depression is causing untold hardships affecting the public welfare; and no opportunity to recoup is afforded oppressed debtors and

Whereas, Sheriff's sales are pending in various counties and no provision of law exists to stay such sales until financial conditions become normal, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Senate and the House of Representatives hereby authorize the several courts of common pleas of the several counties of this Commonwealth to stay and adjourn a date not later than Saturday, November 4, 1933, the execution of all writs of fieri facias, levari facias, venditioni exponas and all other writs requiring the levy and seizure of lands and tenemants or personal property now in the hands of such sheriffs, or hereafter issued at any time prior to Saturday, November 4, 1933, which under existing law are required to be fully executed or returned before said date;

Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby declares its purpose forthwith to enact suitable legislation more fully to effectuate this resolution; to validate all writs stayed, executed and returned in accordance with the provisions of this resolution and to relieve all sheriffs of the several counties of this Commonwealth from all liability for complying with the resolution; and to further provide that all such writs which have been heretofore advertised and posted in accordance with the provisions of existing law shall not be required to be re-advertised or re-posted, but the original advertising and posting shall be deemed sufficient compliance with law to effectuate the lawful execution and return of such writs as provided by this resolution.

JOINT COMMITTEE TO MAKE A STUDY OF THE PROPOSED INSURANCE LAWS

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Appropriations:

In the House of Representatives, May 1, 1933.

Whereas, Bills codifying and revising the law relating to the Insurance Department and insurance companies have been presented to this session of the legislature and there is not sufficient time for the Senate and House of Represntatives to complete studies of these codes so as to authorize their adoption at this session of the Legislature; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the President pro tempore of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representativs appoint four members of the House who together shall constitute a joint legislative committee whose duty it shall be to study House Bill Number nine hundred twenty-six known as the "Insurance Department Code" and House Bill Number one thousand four hundred known as the "Insurance Code" to prepare such corrections and amendments to said codes as may be deemed necessary and to re-submit said bills with its corrections and amendments to the legislative session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

Resolved, That an item of two thousand dollars ($2,000) be inserted in the General Appropriation Bill to pay the expenses of the members of said committee

ALCOHOLIC CONTENT TO BE SPECIFIED ON LABELS

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Law and Order:

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1933.

Whereas, Many complaints are made that with the legalizing of brewed and malt beverages containing not more than 3.2 per centum of alcohol by weight many brewing companies are taking undue advantage of the public's desire for a healthful malt beverage by selling near beer and falsely labelling the containers as to the amount of alcohol contained in the beverage being sold; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Ways and Means Committee of this House be directed to prepare legislation requiring all containers of malt beverages to specify on labels the alcoholic content of the beverages contained therein by weight and volume and prescribing adequate penalties for falsely labelling any container of malt beverages.

JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE WAGES AND LABOR CONDITIONS OF CHILDREN IN THE COMMONWEALTH

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 3, 1933.

Whereas, It has been brought to the attention of the Legislature by the public press and by studies of the Department of Labor and Industry, that children are employed under intolerable conditions, and

Whereas, Such children are alleged to be earning as little as one dollar a week, and

Whereas, State and federal relief funds are alleged to be used to subsidize the existence of sweatshops at the expense of the state and of other employers, and

Whereas, It appears that children who should be in school are taking the employment from adults charged with the responsibility of families, and

Whereas, It appears that the low rates of pay accepted by children are lowering wages for adults and that the manufacturing workers in Pennsylvania receive a lower average weekly earning than the same class of employes in any other northern state except New Hampshire, and

Whereas, There is a grave danger that more sweatshops will come into the state following the passage by New York, New Jersey and New Hampshire of minimum wage laws within the past month, therefore,

Be it resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Speaker of the House appoint three members of the House to a special committee to make a study of this situation, that the President of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate and that the Governor be requested to appoint three members from the public at large, and that the Department of Labor and Industry be authorized to delegate representatives to aid in this study, and be it further

Resolved, That said special committee be instructed to report to the General Assembly at its next regular or special session, and be it further

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to include the subjects of child labor and inimum wage in any call he issues for any special session.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection, and the resolution is referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SCOTT, from the Committee on Appropriations, re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1222 (House Bill No. 1532), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the maintenance of certain hospitals.

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL No. 446

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House insists upon its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 446, entitled:

An Act relating to the business of banking, and to the exercis eof fiduciary powers by corporations; providing for the organization of banking corporations, with or without fiduciary powers, including the conversion of national banks into State banks, and for the licensing of private bankers; defining the rights, powers, duties, liabilities, and immunities of such corporations, of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business, with or without fiduciary powers, of private bankers, and of the officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, attorneys, and other employes of all such corporations or private bankers, or of affiliated corporations, associations, or persons; restricting the exercise of banking powers by any other corporation, association, or person, and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts, prothonotaries, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts.

MOTION TO APPOINT COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist upon its non-concurrence in the amendments to the foregoing bill, and that a committee of conference be appointed to confer with a similar committee of the House (if the House shall apoint such committee) on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That Messrs. Sordoni, Coyne and Bell be said committee on the part of the Senate, and that the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL No. 315

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House insists upon its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 315, entitled:

An Act relating to the powers and duties of the Department of Banking and the Secretary of Banking in exercising supervision over and taking possession of and conducting or liquidating the business and property of corporations associations and persons receiving deposits or otherwise transacting a banking business corporations acting as fiduciaries and building and loan associations providing for the payment of the expenses of the Department of Banking by supervised corporations associations or persons and appropriating the Banking Department Fund authorizing the Department of Banking under certain circumstances to examine corporations associations or persons affiliated or having business transactions with supervised corporations associations or persons authorizing appeals to the Supreme Court and prescribing and limiting the powers and duties of certain other courts and their prothonotaries registers of wills recorders of deeds and certain State departments commissions and officers authorizing certain local public officers and State departments to collect fees for services rendered under this act providing penalties and repealing certain acts and parts of acts.

MOTION TO APPOINT COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist upon its non-concurrence in the amendments to the foregoing bill, and that a committee of conference be appointed to confer with a similar committee of the House (if the House shall appoint such committee) on the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr COYNE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That Messrs. Sordoni, Coyne and Bell be said committee on the part of the Senate, and that the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RESOLUTION RECOMMITTED

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, a few minutes ago there was reported from the Committee on Appropriations a resolution introduced by the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Bell, relating to the investigation of closed banks, or the Banking Department, possibly, in charge of closed banks, I refused unanimous consent to the immediate consideration of that resolution. I now move that that resolution be referred to the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations for immediate consideration. Mr. President, I suppose this being a resolution having to do with banks or the Banking Department, it should properly be considered by the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations rather than by the Committee on Appropriations to which it was originally referred.

Mr. ARON. Mr.President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SORDONI, from the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations, reported as committed, the following resolution, which was laid on the table.

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE DEPARTMENT OF BANKING WITH RESPECT TO CLOSED BANKS

In the Senate, April 26, 1933.

Whereas, The continued depreciation of the value of securities has brought about a material shrinking of the assests of closed banks now being liquidated by the Department of Banking; and

Whereas, There are many complaints that an unduly large percentage of the assets of corporations in receivership are used up in the expenses of receiverships and in the payment of salaries and fees; and

Whereas, It is the desire of the General Assembly that the assets of closed banks be preserved to the fullest extent for the benefit of depositors therein and creditors; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint three members of the House of Representatives, who, together shall constitute a joint legislative committee, whose duty it shall be to investigate the affairs of the Department of Banking with respect to closed banks and other closed financial institutions, to ascertain whether the assets of such banks and institutions are being carefully preserved, the affairs of such institutions economically administered, and the assets of such institutions liquidated to the best advantage for the interests of creditors and depositors;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee Any persons who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR SENATE BILL No. 454

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MANSFIELD offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to.

RECESS

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 9.30 this evening.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. TRAINER, from the Committee on Law and Order, reported as committed, the following resolution, which was laid on the table:

ALCOHOLIC CONTENT TO BE SPECIFIED ON LABELS

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1933.

Whereas, Many complaints are made that with the legalizing of brewed and malt beverages containing not more than 3.2 per centum of alcohol by weight many brewing companies are taking undue advantage of the public's desire for a healthful

malt beverage by selling near beer and falsely labelling the containers as to the amount of alcohol contained in the beverage being sold; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Ways and Means Committee of this House be directed to prepare legislation requiring all containers of malt beverages to specify on labels the alcoholic content of the beverages contained therein by weight and volume and prescribing adequate penalties for falsely labelling any container of malt beverages.

HOUSE MESSAGES

CONSTRUCTION OF A TUNNEL UNDER THE DELAWARE RIVER FROM CHESTER TO A POINT IN NEW JERSEY

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Public Roads and Highways:

In the House of Representatives, May 4, 1933.

Whereas The need for additional means of communication between southeastern Pennsylvania and southern New Jersey is apparent and

Whereas A major construction project may been financed in part through monies made available by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation through loans for self-liquidating projects and

Whereas Such a project will provide employment for a large number of persons in a section of this Commonwealth where unemployment is serious and

Whereas It is of vital importance that channel approaches to any port shall be free from obstructions which delay and are a hazard to navigation and which will be reflected in freight and insurance rates and

Whereas Experience has shown that the erection of the Philadelphia-Camden bridge has prevented a number of vessels from passing beneath it causing additional expense and loss in the discharge of cargo the dispatch of vessels and has occasioned unfavorable comment with respect to the port of Philadelphia therefore be it

Resolved That the construction of a tunnel under the Delaware River is recommended as entirely feasible and as furnishing a practical and safe means of transit between the shores of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the Department of Highways is directed to make a survey and ascertain the approximate cost of a tunnel under the Delaware River extending from the City of Chester in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to a point on the opposite shore in the State of New Jersey and to make a report thereof to the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five not later than the first day of February one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO APPROVAL OR DISAPPROVAL OF PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSIONERS

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. PARKINSON offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows and laid over under the rules:

In the Senate, May 4, 1933.

Whereas, The Senate at the Special Session of 1932, by resolution constituted a Senate Committee to investigate the affairs of the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the personnel thereof, the work of which Senate Committee has been seriously retarded by court injunctions; and

Whereas, Action has been taken by the Senate and House of Representatives at this session, continuing said committee in order to enable it to conclude its investigations after the adjournment of the Legislature and to make report to the next session of the Senate; and

Whereas, the Governor has appointed certain persons as members of the Public Service Commission and has issued to said persons commissions of office expiring at fixed dates in the future, and has transmitted the names of such appointees to the Senate for its action as provided by law; and

Whereas, The Senate will not be in a position to act intelligently on said appointments made by the Governor until the committee so continued has concluded its investigations and made report thereof to the Senate; and

Whereas, The failure of the Senate to act on said appointments of the Governor at this time will not interfere with the functioning of the Public Service Commission pending the completion of said investigation and the presentation of its report, but will permit the present membership thereof to continue to act until action on said appointments is taken by the Senate in the future; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate at this time withhold action on the approval or disapproval of the appointments of George W. Woodruff, Frederick P. Gruenberg, Clyde L. King, P. Stephen Stahlnecker and C. Jay Goodnough, as members of the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, made by the Governor and submitted to the Senate.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE SECURITIES COMMISSION

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. FAY offered the following resolution which was twice read:

In the Senate, May 4, 1933.

Whereas, Charges have been made that Members of the Securities Commission have been improperly permitting the sale of certain securities in this State; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint three Senators, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint three Members of the House of Representatives, who together shall constitute a joint legislative committee whose duty it shall be to investigate the affairs and records of the Securities Commission and to ascertain whether securities have been permitted to be sold improperly in this State and to investigate such other matters and affairs of said Commission as the committee deems advisable.

Resolved, That said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman, requiring and commanding any person to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the committee shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before it. Any person who shall wilfully neglect and refuse to appear and testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth in such cases.

Resolved, That said committee shall make report of its findings at the next session of the General Assembly.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection, and the resolution will be referred to the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. McCLURE, from the Committee on Public Roads and Highways, reported as committed, The following Resolution.

In the House of Representatives, May 4, 1933.

Whereas The need for additional means of communication between southeastern Pennsylvania and southern New Jersey is apparent and

Whereas A major construction project may be financed in part through monies made available by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation through loans for self-liquidating projects and

Whereas Such a project will provide employment for a large number of persons in a section of this Commonwealth where unemployment is serious and

Whereas It is of vital importance that channel approaches to any port shall be free from obstructions which delay and are a hazard to navigation and which will be reflected in freight and insurance rates and

Whereas Experience has shown that the erection of the Philadelphia-Camden bridge has prevented a number of vessels from passing beneath it causing additional expense and loss in the discharge of cargo the dispatch of vessels and has occasioned unfavorable comment with respect to the port of Philadelphia therefore be it

Resolved That the construction of a tunnel under the Delaware River is recommended as entirely feasible and as furnishing a practical and safe means of transit between the shores of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the Department of Highways is directed to make a survey and ascertain the approximate cost of a tunnel under the Delaware River extending from the City of Chester in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to a point on the opposite shore in the State of New Jersey and to make a report thereof to the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five not later than the first day of February one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

The House met at 11.00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George F. Conner, offered the following prayer:

O spirit of God, we behold thy glory in the heavens and in all thy wondrous creation this happy morning. All nature is throbbing with life, beauty and music, and we would be something less than human if we faltered in our response to the inner urge to praise thee, a chord would be missing in the universal symphany. We will not have it so.

We thank Thee for life and the opportunity of having some little part in making the world a better place in which to live.

"To each one is given a marble to carve for the wall,
A stone that is needed to heighten the beauty of all;
And only his soul has the magic to give it a grace,
And only his hands have the cunning to put it in place."

May we not be discouraged or disheartened if ours is not the keystone in the arch, or the corner stone in the building. If we do well our part, no matter how inconspicuous, the master builder sees, understands, and will reward all the faithful. Even so Lord, may it be. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. Long, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. DeFREHN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. DeFrehn, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. DeFREHN. Mr. Speaker, under the rules governing this House, I refer you to rule No. 30, and ask whether the chairman of any committee can rightfully withhold from consideration by his committee any bill referred to it.

The SPEAKER. Answering the gentleman's parliamentary inquiry, the Chair reads Rule No. 30 of the House:

> "Each committee shall have full power over the bill, resolution or other paper committed to it, except that the committee cannot change the title or subject, nor amendments adopted by the House."

Therefore, the bill belongs to the Committee and does not belong to the House. Does that answer the gentleman's inquiry?

Mr. DeFREHN. That answers the question, Mr. Speaker.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DeFREHN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DeFREHN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in the month of February I introduced House Bill No. 1017, which was referred to the Committee on Cities, February 21. The purpose of this bill is to allow electors of any third class city of this State to vote on the question whether or not they shall adopt the City Manager plan of government for their city.

The Chairman of this committee persistently refused to allow his committee to consider the bill. Several times he has been appealed to and urged to allow the bill to be acted upon. Several times he promised to do so and failed just as often.

Last Thursday a petition was handed him signed by a majority of the members of his committee, a duplicate copy of which was handed to me, urging him to call a meeting of the committee without delay, for the purpose of considering the bill. Among the sixteen signers of this petition were ten of the twelve third class city members of the Committee. I have been told that one of the remaining two went to him personally and made the same request.

When I was home over the weekend I was asked by one of our most prominent citizens what was being done with this bill. I told him it was being held up by the Chairman of the Committee. He then asked whether we could not discharge the Committee from further consideration and bring it out on the floor.

I with a majority of the members of this House have opposed many attempts to discharge committees and in the eight years during which I have been a member, have voted very few times for such a resolution. One of these occasions was on Tuesday of this week, and I voted then as a protest against such high handed methods.

I hesitate to appeal to the House to discharge a committee especially when the committee is in no wise to blame, but I believe the rules should be altered to permit the discharge of the chairman, when he refuses to do his duty.

Whether I am or am not for the city manager plan personally, does not matter, but I represent a people who want it and I will probably be criticized for not attempting to force it through and it will add one more cause for criticism of this Honorable Body.

In closing I wish to say, that if this Bill had been presented to the committee and by it found worthy of death and had been executed in an orderly way, I could say nothing against it. But I am now and have always been opposed to Lynch law, by which this poor innocent bill has been put to death.

I have learned however that in the closing hours of the session of 1933 a meeting was called yesterday, apparently for the purpose of giving the bill a legal burial.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman on the question of parliamentary inquiry will be spread at length upon the Journal.

STATEMENT BY MR. SHREINER

MR. SHREINER asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, the Governor of Pennslyvania yesterday singled out as victims of his daily attack the four members of this House from Dauphin County. This was a departure from his usual procedure. Ordinarily he is satisfied with the statement that members of House and Senate, individually and collectively, are doing nothing, and lots of it. He is content with the absurd general declaration that when legislators embrace an idea at variance with his they are false to their trusts. In his opinion two hundred and fifty-eight Senators and Assemblymen are always wrong.

But yesterday he narrowed the field to the four members from Dauphin. Because we voted for House Bill 22—the Turner Bill—he said we voted to cripple and handicap the entire State government. He said we voted to cut down the Capitol payroll, and thus bring hard times to the doors of Dauphin County businessmen. The Capitol payroll, he said, has been the one stable payroll in Dauphin County, and has kept local business from utter stagnation.

If that were true, ladies and gentlemen, it would not be the fault of the Governor of Pennsylvania. Harrisburg became the Capital of Pennsylvania scores of years before the Chief Executive tried to make the State government the tail to his political kite. And business in the capitol city is not what the Governor would have you believe. Since early in January of 1931 it has not been what it should have been. The reason is plain. When Gifford Pinchot became Governor he inaugurated among Capitol employes a reign of terror which effectively closed their pocketbooks.

Since early January of 1931 not a single attache of any Department under the Governor has been certain of his or her job. Positions under the dome do not depend upon merit. They depend solely upon the whims of political sadists whose happiness increase in direct ratio to the woes they cause. Because he was the nominee of the Republican Party, Gifford Pinchot carried this county by a huge vote in November of 1930. His vote was not the result of one man's efforts—nor the efforts of the little clique which, when his election was assured, came at last and bravely into the open and claimed credit for valorous deeds. The Republican Organization of Dauphin County stood by the ticket.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, many Capitol employes helped Dauphin County's fight for Gifford Pinchot. And they did it because they remembered that during his first administration he seemed to befriend the little fellow. Perhaps he did—the records will show whether he did or not. But I know that a few months after he became Governor the second time he permitted approved extortionists to exact from State employes two per cent. contributions to a war chest with which he hoped to win the United States Senatorial nomination for Smedley Butler. For the first time in the history of Pennsylvania, State employes were maced for primary campaign purposes—and that despite the fact that in his own campaign of 1930 Gifford Pinchot loudly damned the practice of forcing governmental employes to contribute to political campaigns.

None will ever know the exact amount forced from State employes during that 1932 campaign, but the expense account filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth totalled more than $200,000. And that sum represented a salary decrease placed up on State employes by the man who now pretends that he is their friend. I understand that a substantial balance remained in the treasury of Mr. Pinchot's committee, when final bills were paid. And doubtless that balance has long since been turned over to charity. Or at least I hope so.

In his tribute yesterday to the Dauphin County members the Governor wondered whether the business men of Dauphin County appreciate our efforts. I, too, have cause for wonder. I wonder whether those business men appreciated the story told last week in an announcement of dismissals and a few resignations of Hill workers. That list contained fifty names. The salaries of ten persons ranged from $2,160 to $8,000. The salaries of forty persons ranged from $480 a year to $1,920—and the majority of the persons in this latter class averaged $100 per month or less.

Mr. Speaker, and Members of this House, I know personally a great many of the forty men and women who without an instant's notice found themselves placed on the sidewalk by their political overlord. I know that their wages or salaries were so meager that they had a hard time making both ends meet. I know that many of them had large families. I know, too, that they were capable men and women, equipped by years of experience to handle their jobs. But that meant nothing to the overlord. They were thrown to the wolves.

If the Governor were asked to explain he would say these forty men and women were fired in the interest of economy. But why is it, ladies and gentlemen, that when Gifford Pinchot gets economical it is always at the expenses of the poorly paid? Why is it that the pruning knife rarely reaches those whose salaries are in the higher brackets?

You have all heard of the Department of Public Instruction, and you know that nesting on its payroll branches are some of the most munificiently paid educators in the world.

But the payrolls tell hundred of queer stories, Mr. Speaker. Why should the Attorney General pay the salaries of twenty deputies—salaries of $5,000 and $6,000? Why do we find a $4,000 investment expert on the payroll of the Governor's office? Why should the taxpayers pay approximately $85,000 per annum for a fleet of press agents? Why should the Governor's own payroll carry a $5,000 investigator whose first aide is a $4,000 man carried on the payroll of the Department of Labor and Industry? Why should the Governor's payroll carry a $5,000 "accountant in charge of systems?" What sort of an official is that? And whose systems are in his charge?

Mr. Speaker, I make no apologies for our stand regarding House Bill No. 22. That bill was passed finally by the Senate yesterday by a vote of 33 to 15. It is an economy bill aimed to cut the frills from government.

I feel that we have been unreasonably submissive to the Governor. I think we have paid too much attention to his threats. And I believe that when he recalls us to Harrisburg in Special Session, as he plans to do in furtherance of one of his ideas, we should do as we deem proper, not as he tells us. And I suggest that he send his $5,000 investigator into the business places of Dauphin County, to learn what business people actually think of him as a bright-winged harbinger of good times.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman will be spread at length upon the Journal.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1009, Printer's No. 1145, entitled

An Act fixing the minimum salaries of county and assistant county superintendents for the terms which will begin on the first Monday of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-four providing for the payment of such minimum salaries by the Commonwealth restricting the number of assistant county superintendents and temporarily superseding any inconsistent acts and parts of acts.

was passed finally on May 3, be reconsidered.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, vote on the final passage of the bill?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the affirmative.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, vote on the final passage of the bill?

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. I voted in the affirmative, Mr. Speaker.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to this bill on third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, next to last line, by striking out the word "temporarily."

Amend section 4, page 4, line 11, by striking out the words "the first year of."

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 1, 1933.

Whereas, As a result of federal economy legislation plans for the construction of the new naval hospital at Philadelphia have been discontinued and

Whereas, The pressing necessity for such an institution in the proposed location has been and is well recognized and

Whereas, Abandonment or delay in the proposed construction must result in suffering among the nation's servants who are entitled to the nation's care therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully presents to His Excellency the President of the United States that in the opinion of said General Assembly no plan or program be it economy or otherwise should be permitted to interfere with the immediate carrying out of so worthy and necessary a project and be it further

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by proper authority to the President of the United States.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. MYERS. Mr. Speaker, with the consent of the sponsor I desire to offer amendments.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Resolution, page 1, line 9, of the "WHEREAS" clauses, by inserting after the word "care" the following: "and WHEREAS, The primary purpose for which such hospital was planned was to provide adequate hospitalization for ex service men; and WHEREAS, Under regulation No. 6, as interpreted in a statement issued from the White House under date of April 4th, Federal hospitalization in the future will be provided only for veterans suffering from disease which was incurred or aggravated in line of duty, thus excluding many thousands of disabled ex service men from necessary hospital care and treatment;"

Amend Resolution, page 1, line 7, by striking out the words "and be it further."

Amend Resolution, page 1, by inserting between lines 7 and 8 the following: "RESOLVED, That it is further the earnest opinion of the General Assembly that economy which casts out from government hospitals broken men and women, the care of whom has heretofore been cheerfully recognized as a Federal duty, and either leave them destitute and helpless or impose the burden of their care on already overburdened communities, is false, dangerous and un-American economy; and be it further."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution as amended?

It was adopted.

Ordered, that the resolution as amended lie over under the rules.

RESOLUTION

FILES TO BE FORWARDED TO MEMBERS

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, May 4, 1933.

Whereas, The files of the bills presented to and the proceedings of the General Assembly of the regular sesison of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three are the property of the members thereof, and are desired for preservation by said members, and

Whereas, Said files have, at former sessions, been forwarded to the homes of the members at the conclusion of the session by the Department of Property and Supplies, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Secretary of the said Department of Property and Supplies shall be requested by the Resident Clerk of the House of Representatives to forward such files and supplies belonging to the members of the House of Representatives as they may designate, to such address as shall be furnished by them to the said Resident Clerk of the House of Representatives, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the said Resident Clerk to the Secretary of the said Department of Property and Supplies.

RESOLUTION No. 90

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1933.

Whereas A meeting originally known as the "First Interstate Conference of Legislators" and subsequently restyled the First Interstate Legislative Assembly in recognition of permanent organization effected was held at Washington D C on February third and fourth one thousand nine hundred thirty-three under the auspices of the American Legislators Association and

Whereas The purpose of this meeting was to consider problems of conflicting taxation and to consider also means for cooperation between the states in dealing with each other and with the Federal Government in respect thereto and

Whereas For the execution of these and other cooperative purposes there was established under suitable regulations by the delegates in attendance a permanent organization of voting representatives of both branches of the forty-eight state legislatures and non-voting advisory representatives of the Governors of the several states to be known as the Interstate Legislative Assembly and

Whereas It is in the public interest that the House of Representatives of this State should be duly represented by one delegate and one alternate in the Interstate Legislative Assembly and the House of Representatives has been invited to appoint such delegates from among its members therefore be it

Resolved That the Speaker shall appoint one member as a delegate and one alternate in case of the inability of the first named delegate to serve to attend the meetings of the Interstate Legislative Assembly

Resolved That the Chief Clerk of the House transmit to the secretary of the Interstate Legislative Assembly in care of the American Legislators' Association Drexel Avenue and Fifty-eighth Street Chicago Illinois a copy of this resolution together with the name of the Member and alternate appointed

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Resolution No. 80, Printer's No. 1074, passed the House be reconsidered.

Mr. FORREST. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Peters, vote on the adoption of the resolution?

Mr. PETERS. I voted in the affirmative, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Forrest, vote on the adoption of the resolution?

Mr. FORREST. I voted in the affirmative, Mr. Speaker.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION LAID ON TABLE

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this resolution be laid on the table.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION No. 75

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire at this time to call up Resolution No. 75, Printer's No. 1034.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1933.

Many sons and daughters of that proud and handsome race which inspired the architecture of Northern Africa and carried into Spain the influence of its artistic temperament have become citizens of this Nation

In the City of Philadelphia there exists a Moorish-American Society made up of Moors who have found here the end of their quest for a home and of the children of those who journeyed here from the plains of Morocco

This Society has done much to bring about a thorough absorption by these people of those principles which are necessary to make them good American citizens

These Moorish-Americans have since being here missed the use of the titles and name annexations that were so familiar at home and which are used in accordance with the doctrines of the religious faith to which they are adherents therefore be it

Resolved That this House commends the Moorish-American Society of Philadelphia for the efficient service it has rendered the Nation in bringing about a speedy and thorough Americanization of these former Moors and that in accordance with the fullest right of religious independence guaranteed every citizen we recognize also the right of these people to use the name affixes El or Ali or Bey or any other prefix or suffix to which they have heretofore been accustomed to use or which they may hereafter acquire the right to use

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 99 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. ROOT offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 99, Printer's No. 145, entitled "An act to amend section eighteen of article nineteen of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred eighty-one) entitled 'An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth' by making provisions for reinstatement of persons removed from the classified service of the city without fault or delinquency on their part," be recalled from the Governor for further consideration.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION No. 83

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up Resolution No. 83, Printer's No. 1122.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 27, 1933.

Whereas Charges have been made of improper practices in the Insurance Department with respect to the doing of business by casualty and fire insurance companies inadequately financed and with respect to the merger of certain companies and their withdrawal from the State Treasury of assets deposited for the protection of insured persons therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint three Senators and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three Members of the House of Representatives who together shall constitute a joint legislative committee whose duty it shall be to investigate the affairs and records of the Insurance Department relating to casualty and fire insurance companies to ascertain whether certain companies are permitted to do business in this Commonwealth when inadequately financed "or otherwise operating in violation of the insurance laws of this Commonwealth" and to ascertain whether mergers or consolidations of casualty companies approved by the Department have been made in accordance with law and whether securities withdrawn from the Treasury Department if any after any such merger or consolidation have been legally withdrawn

Resolved That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books papers records and documents as the committee may deem necessary Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books papers records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases

Resolved That said committee shall make report of its findings to the next session of the General Assembly

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION No. 89

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up Resolution No. 89, Printer's No. 1131.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1933.

Whereas, The great number of sheriff's sales of both real and personal property during the present period of unemployment and financial depression is causing untold hardships affecting the public welfare and no opportunity to recoup is afforded oppressed debtors and

Whereas, Sheriffs' sales are pending in various counties and no provision of law exists to stay such sales until financial conditions become normal therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Senate and the House of Representatives hereby authorize the several courts of common pleas of the several counties of this Commonwealth to stay and adjourn until a date not later than Saturday November four one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three the execution of all writs of fieri facias levari facias venditioni exponas and all other writs requiring the levy and seizure of lands and tenements or personal property now in the hands of such sheriffs or hereafter issued at any time prior to Saturday November four one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three which under existing law are required to be fully executed or returned before said date

Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby declares its purpose forthwith to enact suitable legislation more fully to effectuate this resolution to validate all writs stayed executed and returned in accordance with the provisions of this resolution and to relieve all sheriffs of the several counties of this Commonwealth from all liability for complying with this resolution to further provide that all such writs which have been heretofore advertised and posted in accordance with the provisions of existing law shall not be required to be re-advertised or re-posted but the original advertising and posting shall be deemed sufficient compliance with law to effectuate the lawful execution and return of such writs as provided by this resolution

Resolved, That this resolution shall be effective immediately upon its approval by the Governor.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I arise to ask for the adoption of House Resolution No. 89, Printers' No. 1131. I ask whether the parliamentary rules give the sponsor of a resolution an opportunity to talk on it.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is permitted to talk on any resolution.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish I had for the fraction of a moment the authority of the Speaker. I would hammer three times with the mallet and say in a loud voice "The House will come to order, the members will take their seats, we have a serious matter under consideration."

Mr. Speaker, I am in dead earnest about there being a serious subject under consideration by the members of this House, because this resolution has to do with the stay of Sheriff sales, and the holding of Sheriff's sales is the taking of a mans work, that which he has put into his house and his home and which is his savings.

The laws of the Commonwealth have apparently set aside two days in the year when they have Sheriff's sales. This year they will be held as usual and there has been no attempt made heretofore to stop them, because we expect them as a general matter of course. This year we find that the number of Sheriff's sales have multiplied because of the depression and they have now become a serious menance to thousands and thousands of people in this State. Briefly, up to now there has been no attempt made to stay them and now I am afraid it is too late, because I am afraid that this resolution and the bill that goes with it is not going to go through the House and Senate if you adjourn this week. Therefore I regret most exceeding that it has not been started a few days earlier, because a sheriff's sale generally means the same thing as a funeral to many people. I know as well as you do that all sheriff's sales do not involve homes and farms, but I know that a large percentage of them do, and in every instance where a sheriff's sale does involve a home or a farm and that home or farm is sold, that is the same as a funeral to the people concerned.

And, gentlemen, it don't take very much of an imagination to see what these sheriff's sales do. It might be an epitaph engraved on a tombstone at the head of a grave, and in that grave is buried all the hopes and ambitions and aspirations of many a man and his wife and his family and the results of their entire life work.

Many of these Sheriff's sales are brought about by no fault of the man or his family. Another strange thing about these sheriff's sales is that while the epitaph might have the date of the death there is no corresponding date of birth, because some of these homes and farms might have been born more than a hundred years ago in the hands of the fathers and grandfathers and great grandfathers of the present holders. Some of these homes that are to be sold tomorrow date back to their foundation two or three generations ago and every one of these homes carries with it a family memory that will now be laid in its grave with a sheriff's sale bill for a beautiful epitaph on the tombstone.

To date this Legislature has been here for eighteen weeks making laws but they have not done anything to abate these sheriff's sales which take place all over the State tomorrow. In my own county there are one hundred and eighty-four and in Philadelphia there are over six thousand, and if that is a fair average then all over the State twenty-four thousand sheriff's sales will take place tomorrow. If that were twenty-four thousand funerals you would be declaring a day of mourning and flags would droop at the half mast and the whole Commonwealth would sit up and take notice, but because it is sheriff's sales the world looks on and no one but the people most interested pay much attention to it. Gentlemen, I believe that this legislation ought to be passed or in this one instance we are going to be found guilty of neglect, and if the judge is a righteous judge he will pronounce the sentence on every member of this House which he deserves, "You are guilty and deserve to be hanged by the neck until you are dead, and God have mercy on your soul."

It is in our power to stop some of these sheriff's sales. May be it is too late, but there is a bill that goes with this resolution and the Governor has said that he would sign this bill if it got through the Senate as soon as it was presented to him. Why not? Who would not sign a bill that would save thousands of homes? You would and so would I and so would the Governor of this State.

I must beg the pardon of the House and I have nothing further to say but this in conclusion; that I feel very much like I think that old king did who said "A horse, a horse, my kingdom for a horse," but he didn't talk quick enough and didn't get the horse and was discharged from his job by his enemies. We are in the session calling for a horse, a horse, but maybe we are calling too late.

Members of the House, I earnestly ask you to vote yes on this resolution.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

(MR. HUTTON IN THE CHAIR)

RESOLUTION No. 77

Mr. MALINA. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up Resolution No. 77, Printer's No. 1057.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1933.

Whereas Many complaints are made that with the legalizing of brewed and malt beverages containing not more than 3.2 per centum of alcohol by weight many brewing companies are taking undue advantage of the public's desire for a healthful malt beverage by selling near beer and falsely labelling the containers as to the amount of alcohol contained in the beverage being sold therefor be it

Resolved That the Ways and Means Committee of this House be directed to prepare legislation requiring all container of malt beverages to specify on labels the alcoholic content of the beverages contained therein by weight and volume and prescribing adequate penalties for falsely labelling any container of malt beverages

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

INVESTIGATION OF ANONYMOUS LETTERS TO MEMBERS

Mr. SHUGARTS offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, May 4, 1933.

Whereas, Many anonymous letters relating to road legislation and containing gross misstatements of facts in regard to the highways of Pennsylvania have lately been received by members of the House; and

Whereas, Such letters work a hardship both upon the officials attacked and upon the members receiving them, and, if believed and their suggestions followed, would be of inestimable damage to the Commonwealth; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House condemns and disapproves of this unfair and cowardly manner of attempting to influence its action, and suggests that an investigation of the sending of anonymous letters to members of the Legislature be thoroughly investigated by the State Police with the idea of apprehending and punishing those guilty of this reprehensible practice.

RESOLUTION

CONSTRUCTION OF TUNNEL CONNECTING PENNSYLVANIA AND NEW JERSEY

Mr. NOTHNAGLE offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In the House of Representatives, May 4, 1933.

Whereas The need for additional means of communication between southeastern Pennsylvania and southern New Jersey is apparent and

Whereas A major construction project may be financed in part through monies made available by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation through loans for self-liquidating projects and

Whereas Such a project will provide employment for a large number of persons in a section of this Commonwealth where unemployment is serious and

Whereas It is of vital importance that channel approaches to any port shall be free from obstructions which delay and are a hazard to navigation and which will be reflected in freight and insurance rates and

Whereas Experience has shown that the erection of the Philadelphia-Camden bridge has prevented a number of vessels from passing beneath it causing additional expense and loss in the discharge of cargo the dispatch of vessels and has occasioned unfavorable comment with respect to the port of Philadelphia therefore be it

Resolved That the construction of a tunnel under the Delaware River is recommended as entirely feasible and as furnishing a practical and safe means of transit between the shores of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the Department of Highways is directed to make a survey and ascertain the approximate cost of a tunnel under the Delaware River extending from the City of Chester in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to a point on the opposite shore in the State of New Jersey and to make a report thereof to the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five not later than the first day of February one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

Mr. GALLAGHER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up Resolution No. 91, Printer's No. 1144.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1933.

Whereas It has been brought to the attention of the Legislature by the public press and by studies of the Department of Labor and Industry that children are employed under intolerable conditions and

Whereas Such children are alleged to be earning as little as one dollar a week and

Whereas State and federal relief funds are alleged to be used to subsidize the existence of sweatshops at the expense of the state and of other employers and

Whereas It appears that children who should be in school are taking the employment from adults charged with the responsibility of families and

Whereas It appears that the low rates of pay accepted by children are lowering wages for adults and that the manufacturing workers in Pennsylvania receive a lower average weekly earning than the same class of employes in any other Northern State except New Hampshire and

Whereas There is a grave danger that more sweatshops will come into the state following the passage by New York New Jersey and New Hampshire of minimum wage laws within the past month therefore

Be It Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the Speaker of the House appoint three members of the House to a special committee to make a study of this situation that the President of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate and that the Governor be requested to appoint three members from the public at large and that the Department of Labor and Industry be authorized to delegate representatives to aid in this study and be it further

Resolved That said special committee be instructed to report to the General Assembly at its next regular or special session and be it further

Resolved That the Governor be requested to include the subjects of child labor and minimum wage in any call he issues for any special session

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. GALLAGHER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is not my intention to take up very much of your time, I realize that there is very important business before this House. I just want to briefly dwell on the provisions of resolution No. 91, which provides that a joint committee shall be appointed to make an investigation of the labor conditions in this Commonwealth. It has been brought to the attention of the citizens of the Commonwealth by the leading newspapers and they are demanding action this summer. Therefore, I urge every member of this House to vote in favor of this resolution.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the House concur in the amendments of the Senate.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have been engaged for no less than half an hour in hearing the amendments made by the Senate to what doubtless is the most important piece of legislation that has been presented to the Legislature so far as concerns the administration and business of the Commonwealth.

No subject has had more intensive study by myself and by my colleagues of the Joint Legislative Committee for the Study of State Finances, and not at all to reflect upon the intelligence or attention of any member of this House, but rather to test your ability to follow these amendments, by the familiarity which must have come to me through my deep study of the subject, and I believe that you will agree with me that there does not sit in this House one man or woman, including the Speaker, and including myself, who has been able during the reading of these amendments, first, to understand them, and secondly, and probably more important than the first, to coordinate this mammonth piece of legislation that is before you consisting of almost four hundred pages. It would be an offense to the intelligence of this House, it would be an offense to the constituencies that sent us here if this motion would prevail. This motion should be defeated, because by its defeat, assuming that the Senate would insist upon the amendments which it has made and transmitted to us a conference committee would be appointed and that conference committee would represent members of the Senate and members of the House, and they would together study the points of difference that may exist betwen them and return to this House a measure that would be in print and would be available to reasonable study by every man and woman in the House.

I dare say that every one of you is as proud of your Commonwealth as am I. I dare say every one of you will be honored when you learn that among the states of this union the form of government of this Commonwealth stands in the forefront. Whether or not this measure will interfere with that standing is not here the question, is whether or not the content of the amendments made by the Senate will destroy, as I believe it will, the basic form of the government of this Commonwealth.

As meagerly as it was possible for me to follow these amendments I notice, and notice pointedly, that the Senate, while it has taken out the elimination of the Executive Board as it appeared in this bill in the first instance, has in times without number reduced the power of that Executive Board, and as I listened to these amendments I noticed equally pointedly that the Senate took sacred care that the Department of the State Treasury and the Department of the Auditor General were eliminated from the proposals that were first introduced in this bill. What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander.

If we have a budget system in Pennsylvania that means anything, then that budget system should take in every department that comes within the executive branch of the government, and the office of the State Treasurer and the office of the Auditor General are as much a part of the executive branch of this State government as is the office of the Governor himself. But that is beside the question.

The real question now before you, the question that you may decide if you vote is this; will you pass this motion, send this measure to the Governor, being totally ignorant of the provisions comprehended by the amendments made by the Senate. You will not go forward to your constitutents and say that by the adoption of this motion, "I don't care what the Senate has done with our government; I don't care how it affects you, the time for adjournment is near; we didn't have time to address ourselves to the most important piece of business that came before the Assembly in this session." If you vote for the motion made by the gentleman from Delaware you will have no further opportunity to study the content of this measure. If you vote for the motion you say for yourselves "I am not interested in my government. I don't care what the Senate has done to my government. I will vote in ignorance, in total ignorance of the contents of this measure."

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I cannot bring myself to believe that there sits in this House a man or a woman, or that the Speaker himself, whose record here is an enviable one, will say that this motion should prevail.

I ask you, I plead with you, for the sake of your Commonwealth to vote down this motion.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the remarks I am about to make bear on House Bill No. 22. I realize that they do not bear directly, all of them, upon the question which is before us, and I hope that if I wander from the question to the extent which the parliamentary rules do not permit the House will bear with me just a moment or two.

When House Bill No. 22 was before this body for final passage, I had prepared a few remarks outlining the position of the Dauphin County delegation which, due to the length of the debate these remarks were never made. I would not now rise to speak on this measure were it not for an article appearing in a Harrisburg paper in which His Excellency, the Governor, is quoted as attacking the Dauphin County members of the House for their support of this bill in this manner:

The Governor renewed his attack on the Turner, House, bill on which the Senate again postponed final action yesterday.

He also turned his attack on the four Dauphin County Assemblymen, Rice, Shreiner, Habbyshaw and Woodside.

"The Capitol payroll has been the one stable payroll throughout the depression in Dauphin County. It kept business from utter stagnation," the Governor said. "Yet these four Dauphin County statesmen have devoted their entire attention so far this session to cutting down the Capitol payroll. They have stood shoulder to shoulder with Mr. Turner in trying to cripple and handicap the entire State government.

"I wonder if the business men of Harrisburg and Dauphin County appreciate the valiant efforts of their Dauphin County representatives. Personally I have never seen such a thorough going effort to cut off the nose to spite the face," he concluded.

Mr. Speaker, if the Governor calls upon the business men of Harrisburg to look with disfavor upon their representatives because they are working with Turner to reduce the amount of money which will be paid to political job holders, how will he be able to defend his position that this is not an economy measure. In the remarks which I had intended to make before this House, when this measure was up for final passage, I had planned to call the attention of the members of this House to the fact that every one of the Dauphin County delegation, is making his living almost within the shadow of the Capitol; that we all had personal friends whose jobs we disliked to see affected and that to reduce the salaries or the number of Capitol Hill employees would not in any way be beneficial to our personal businesses or professions, but I felt then, and I feel now and I know that in saying this I am expressing the opinion of my colleagues, that we owe a duty to the people who sent us here, to consider these matters from the standpoint of the best interests of the common people and the taxpayers rather than from the standpoint of political jobs and the direct or indirect benefits that high salaried political offices might have upon us personally.

His Excellency, the Governor of this Commonwealth, has frequently held himself out as a friend of the taxpayer, a protector of the common man and the opponent of political organizations. I ask the merchants of Dauphin County, who are paying their sales taxes, I ask the widows who are paying their inheritance taxes; I ask the farmers who are suffering under their extreme burden, I ask all the taxpayers of Dauphin County and of the State of Pennsylvania, who is their friend? Is it he who favors economy in Government or he who opposes it? Is it he who votes for reduction or he who criticizes and ridicules those who did vote for reduction because ——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhoads, will state his point of order.

Mr. RHODES. The gentleman from Dauphin is not speaking on the motion. Although I think we are all anxious that we should dispose of this question the gentleman from Dauphin will have the opportunity of discussing the matter which he is now discussing at some future time.

The SPEAKER. A point of order has been raised. The Chair rules that the gentleman must confine his remarks to the matters before the House, which are the amendments. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, this bill has been before this House since the very beginning of this session. There has been plenty of opportunity to digest this bill and for the members to study it and to understand it and I believe there will be very little advantage gained if we delay this matter further. I believe, with all due respect for the gentleman from Philadelphia, that if this motion is defeated at this time it will seriously handicap the passage of this measure and it will result in this ultimate conclusion; that if we defeat the motion of the gentleman from Delaware it may result in the defeat of this measure and also result in this Commonwealth not receiving the income which it should receive and which has received such tremendous opposition from the Governor.

It would lessen the amount of money which the political job holders in his community would receive and thereby reduce their purchasing power. His Excellency states that in supporting this measure the Dauphin County delegation is makign an effort to cut off its nose to spite its face and I agree with him that it is not to our personal advantage to so vote for reasons which I have already stated, but we have not been elected to look after our personal interests; we have been elected to look after the interests of the taxpayers who are demanding economy.

Maybe as a member of the Dauphin County delegation I have as the Governor suggests, lost my nose, but noses are mighty good things to lose when voting on an economy measure.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the issue involved seems to me to be whether we will submit this measure in its present form to the Governor, passing the buck to the executive branch, or whether we will endeavor to find out something about the measure before we pass it.

It is true that we have studied House Bill No. 22; we have studied everything except the amendments to House Bill No. 22. For myself I want to know something about the amendments. I prefer reading them to having them read to me. When this measure left the House the heart of it was changed in the Executive Board. When the Senate removed the provisions providing for an Excutive Board composed of the elective officers and returned to the present form in which the present board functions, it placed the entire machinery out of alignment.

As I read or as I interpret the amendments made by the Senate we have increased the departments of the State government. We had originally an Executive, a Judiciary and a Legislative branch and now we have added another coordinate State department composed of the Auditor General and the State Treasurer functioning outside of the confines of the rules and regulations that apply to other departments.

I am interested in this measure because of the intense interest in my home community, where I am quite certain that all of the people are convinced that they know more about this measure than I do, and perhaps they are right. They know as much about the amendments as I do. I have received from my home folks a telegram which says it is very important that the ———

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Franklin will state his point of order.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not confining his remarks to the motion before the House.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The gentleman will confine his remarks to the motion before the House.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, my home folks were telling me the reasons why I should support this measure.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken, and the gentleman must confine himself to the motion.

Mr. ANDREWS. Is it not, Mr. Speaker, the argument——

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria tarry for a moment? Does the gentleman from Franklin have objection to the reading of the telegram?

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, not if it is germane to the subject.

The SPEAKER. There is only one way the Chair can determine that, and that is by the reading of the telegram. The gentleman from Cambria will proceed with the reading of the telegram.

Mr. ANDREWS. Thanks, Mr. Speaker. "Very important you vote for concurrence in House Bill No. 22 as amended. This is an economy measure. Understand your failure to support this bill might endanger our appropriations." I resent that telegram——

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will confine his remarks to the motion before the House.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this bill———

The SPEAKER. These amendments are before the House.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, these amendments to this bill, as I have pointed out, intensify the disagreement and the divergence between the Department of Justice and the Auditor General and the State Treasurer. We do not know anything of them, and I say to the House that I would like to read them before I vote for them.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think that we can all agree that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, has fully and impartially stated the seriousness of the motion upon which we are going to vote in a few minutes.

I think we can all look back over the last few months and we can recall a great many instances where we had noncurred in amendments put in a bill by the Senate, which bills were of less importance and of less consequence than that which is before the House this afternoon.

Some of these amendments, in my opinion, are possibly beneficial. The bill goes to the very heart of our State government and, therefore, I feel that this motion should be voted down, and that we should not concur in the amendments inserted in this bill by the Senate.. Only yesterday we refused to concur in amendments put in a bill by the Senate, a bill of less consequence than this one. That bill was put into a conference committee, and I can see no reason why we should hastily, without any consideration, pass upon these amendments today and put the bill upon the Governor's desk in a manner which is contrary to all precedent.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, just a few brief words before we are asked to register our vote on these amendments.

I presume every man in America is earnest, sincere and honest about his Americanism; he ought to be if he is not. There has never been, possibly, in the history of our nation a time that demands more serious thought, because of the many cross currents, inconsistent and paradoxical reasoning as to legislation nationally and locally in the forty-eight states that makes up these United States.

I have heard advanced in this House this morning reasons why we should not vote for these amendments and the superlative reason of all reasons was that we were asked to take hasty action, and yet we read in every paper published in the United States, published in the whole world, that from the beginning of this nation there was never such speed in legislation as there is at the present time in Congress. We are told by the friends of the American government nationally that we are living under a minor dictatorship, and a man who questions the right of the national Congress, both the upper and lower houses, to concede some of their deliberations and conclusions and discussions is branded as not a patroit.

I am asking you, my friends, here this morning, reflecting the attitude of our national government on economy, reflecting the philosophy of government that is abroad in the nation, that we, as Pennsylvanians, follow the lofty patroitism of our national government in this economy measure by voting for the motion, and follow, at least temporarily, the expeditious methods that is accepting, inviting and receiving the attention of most Americans. Do not be deluded by the specious remarks that have been put out on the floor this morning. There is some "Ethiopian in the woodpile" that we have not been told about relative to this bill and voting for this measure. Vote for this measure and be consistent with the national economy, with your great Executive, who at present fills the office in this State and who has given to it his hearty support and admiration, and I ask you, my friends, in conformity with those wanting to acclaim the sound principles of Americanism, do not delay, do not ponder, do not discuss. You commit no abortion on our national ideals nor government by voting affirmatively for these amendments. Let us pass, in God's name, one piece of legislation that will mean something to the taxpayers of the State of Pennsylvania, and possibly will show the Gover in his true light when it is laid on his table, where it ought to be laid. Let us vote for these amendments without fear, without favor and with the courage of the Pennsylvanians that we should be.

Mr. SHORTZ. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, stripped of all its verbiage and the acrimonious impluse that seems to prevade the atmosphere, we have but one proposition to decide. There may be an "Ethiopian in the wood pile that might materialize if we had a chance to study this measure. I am asking that this motion be voted down for this reason: we are sent here as representatives not to vote blindly on any proposition, and I submit to the membership of this House, as the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, so ably put it, that there are very few of us who understand these amendments; no matter how good they may be we do not understand these amendments in relation to the text of the bill.

I am just pointing out to the members that which we all know; we are voting as individual representatives, we are using our judgment, and if we vote for the motion our judgment is that we have studied the bill, we understand the value of these amendments and we go back home and explain all about it. If we vote this motion down we register our opinion that we have not had a chance to study these amendments and that we are not ready to vote on these amendments. I am asking the members of the House to vote this motion down, so that some of us will have a chance to study these amendments and see whether we want to go along with them.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. WELSH. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 86

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 1, 1933.

Whereas Under the new administration of the Honorable Franklin Delano Roosevelt there will eventually be undertaken the working out of a ship-building program for the United States Navy and

Whereas In the past the banks of the Delaware River have been noted as the greatest ship-building center in the United States and

Whereas The port of Philadelphia includes the Philadelphia Navy Yard and the William Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company and

Whereas The William Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company in the past turned out all kinds of ships from large passenger and merchant ships to battleships cruisers gun-boats and destroyers and

Whereas According to the Philadelphia Inquirer of October eleventh one thousand nine hundred and seventeen the William Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company was one of the six ship yards authorized by the United States government to help carry out the War Department's program of building seven hundred and eighty-seven vessels of all types and

Whereas In the course of this project the William Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company employed six thousand five hundred men with additional employes added as the construction increased and

Whereas The strategic location of the city of Philadelphia to both the coal and iron mines and the steel mills of Pennsylvania by rail and its easy accessibility to the sea by the Delaware River makes this city the most accessible and the most logical place for industry of this type and

Whereas Due to the slowing down of this the greatest of Philadelphia's industries many people have been thrown out of employment and

Whereas The United States Navy Department is contemplating increasing the strength of the Navy and it would be in keeping with the past record of construction of Philadelphia that many of the vessels which will be constructed in the naval program should be constructed in that port thereby giving employment to thousands of skilled mechanics of that industry and improving conditions to others by increasing employment and adding to the buying power of the citizens of Philadelphia therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully urge the Navy Department of the United States to select the port of Philadelphia for the construction of the major part of its new program

Resolved That copies of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk to the Secretary of the Navy of the United States

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 2386 (Senate Bill No. 1341), Printer's No. 659, entitled

An Act to amend section seven of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws four hundred sixty-five) entitled "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed housed or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class second class and second class A by requiring certain construction and ways of egrese equipment and maintenance providing for the licensing of projectionists requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and in certain cases by the chiefs of fire departments in cities of the third class providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act and repealing certain acts" by providing for fees for licensing of projectionists on page 6 of today's calendar, was ordered to be transcribed for third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to the bill on second reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to the title be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to the first section be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 1, page 3, line 6, by striking out "two dollars ($2.00)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "fifty cents (50c)"

Amend Section 1, page 3, line 9, by striking out "five dollars ($5.00)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "six dollars and fifty cents ($6.50)"

Amend Section 1, page 3, lines 10 and 11, by striking out "two dollars ($2.00)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I arise to oppose these amendments for the reason that the bill is introduced by and has the support of the persons affected, namely: the motion picture projectionists, who will have to pay the fees and who are thoroughly in favor of the bill as introduced in the Senate and passed there and as it is here now. I ask the members of the House to vote no on these amendments.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the information of the gentlemen from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, and the members of the House, I want to say this does not change the fees at all; it simply changes the amount of the fee that the projectionsist would have to pay if he doesn't get a license. The present bill provides that if he don't get his license, that he has to pay two dollars to make his application and if the application is not approved he loses the two dollars. This is changed so that he will only lose fifty cents: If he gets his license he pays the same fee. I submit to you whether or not that is a fair propostion.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I arise to oppose the proposed amendment to this bill. This is a bill which is proposed to guard and to aid the moving picture projectionists and is introduced at their own suggestion and effects no one except those employed at that trade. It is a revenue raising bill and by including these amendments it destroys the intent of the bill. If the persons who are engaged as moving picture operators are willing to pay two dollars for standing an examination I don't see why anyone should object to it, and I therefore ask the members of this House to vote the amendment down.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Clinton; Mr. Simon?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Clinton, Mr. Simon, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SIMON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman, what is the purposes of these amendments?

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of these amendments is to reduce the amount which the projectionist would lose if he didn't get a license.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman why he wants to make the change when the motion picture projectionists themselves are in favor of the original bill?

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in reply to the gentleman from Berks I would say that I am introducing these amendments at the request of some of the projectionists themselves.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Clinton who it was that suggested the change.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I don't feel inclined to answer that question.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman does not need to.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill has received careful consideration in the Senate. We had a hearing on it before the Judiciary General Committee yesterday at which time those for and against the bill were heard and the committee has reported it out in the present form. I ask you to vote these amendments down so that it may come before us tomorrow in its present form. I firmly believe these amendments are offered for the purpose of defeating the bill tomorrow. I ask you to vote it down.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the title?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1791, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation of moneys in the Motor License Fund to the Department of Public Instruction and providing for the repayment of such moneys from the General Fund

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000) is hereby specifically appropriated out of the Motor License Fund to the Department of Public Instruction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the two fiscal years commencing June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three for aiding financially handicapped and distressed local public school districts The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion the sum hereby appropriated to such local public school districts and in such amounts as he shall deem expedient The sum hereby appropriated shall be in addition to any appropriation made to the said Department of Public Instruction by the general appropriation bill passed at this session of the Legislature

Section 2 The General Assembly hereby declares that a moral obligation rests on the General Assembly to return such money to the Motor License Fund in the future whenever the financial condition of the General Fund permits an appropriation from the General Fund for such purposes without incurring an over appropriation liability

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Cordier.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Cordier, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CORDIER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Am I correct, Mr. Speaker, in my impression that Section 2 of this bill as originally drawn carried a provision making the five million dollars that this takes from the Motor Fund for the benefit of the schools a moral obligation on the part of the Legislature to repay at some future time?

Mr. CORDIER. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. And as amended Section 2 stipulates certain times when this is to be returned to the Motor Fund.

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, the bill was amended in the Senate.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Then, Mr. Speaker, both the original section and the amended section are out of the bill now?

Mr. CORDIER. They are not, Mr. Speaker. The bill is now in the form in which it originally passed the House a week or so ago by a vote of one hundred and seventy-one to one.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Then, Mr. Speaker, the five million dollars is appropriated specifically from the Motor Fund to the Department of Public Instruction without any provision for its return?

Mr. CORDIER. I would say that there is a provision for its return, Mr. Speaker, at any future time when the General Fund would be in a proper financial condition to repay the appropriation without creating a deficit and a liability in the General Fund.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, if the original section and the amended section are both out of the bill now where is the provision for returning the money to the General Fund?

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, Section 2 as originally passed by the House was stricken out in the Senate and a new Section 2 was inserted and provided for repaymnet at the end of the biennium, and, as it is now, it is in its original form, which provides that it is to be repaid when the General Fund is in proper condition.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, from the appearance of the bill both Sections 2, original and amended, are both eliminated.

Mr. CORDIER. What number does the gentleman have, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. I have No. 1143, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on page two line 6 you will notice that the bracket before the section is stricken out and the bracket after the word "liability" is stricken out from line 6 to line 22. From the word section on line 6 to after the word liability on line 11.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. That is placed back in the bill?

Mr. CORDIER. This is placed back in the bill.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is an important bill and I am very much interested in seeing it passed. We have a very serious situation insofar as the schools are concerned and the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Cordier, has made a very diligent effort to place this bill on the Governor's desk in order that, if he sees fit to do so, he may sign it and so that we may have a revolving fund in the Department of Education by which the Superintendent of Public Instruction can help the small districts when they come in with their budgets.

I don't know whether the Governor will see his way clear to sign this bill or not, but it is the only way that I know of by which to create a revolving fund and enable the Department to give some help to the small districts during the next biennium. I think the House should pass this bill to help the small districts, as far as we can, during the next biennium. I ask you to pass this measure, send it to the Senate and place it on the Governor's desk and see if he can see his way clear to approve this bill.

"In case of the repealing or termination of this act the State Treasurer is authorized to purchase the stamps from any municipality or any other person who had previously purchased the stamps from the Treasurer's office

"The State Treasurer shall keep on file the name date and amount of stamps bought by the municipalities and the municipalities or any others authorized to sell the stamps shall be required to keep the names of the persons to whom the sale was made providing the sale is for one dollar or more

"Section 14 All moneys paid into the State Treasury as proceeds of the sale of emergency relief stamps shall constitute a special fund to be known as the "Scrip Redemption Fund" and all moneys which shall be credited to said fund or as much thereof as shall be necessary are hereby expressly appropriated to the State Treasurer for the redemption of scrip certificates issued under this act and for the payment into the General Fund of the cost of preparing and distributing scrip certificates and emergency relief stamps provided that not more than two per centum of the face value of stamps sold may be used for payment of such cost

"Section 15 All municipalities are hereby authorized to accept scrip certificates issued under this act when properly stamped in payment of taxes and any other debts due to the municipality

"Section 16 Any person who shall counterfeit raise or alter or who shall conspire with others to counterfeit raise or alter any scrip certificate authorized by this act or any emergency relief stamp or who shall utter or transfer any such certificate or stamp with knowledge or notice that it is counterfeit or has been raised or altered shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not exceeding one thousand dollars or to undergo imprisonment for not more than two years or both

"Any person who shall buy or sell emergency relief stamps at a price less than the full retail value unless authorized so to do under this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than one thousand dollars or to undergo imprisonment for not more than two years"

Amend Section 13, page 10, by striking out lines 25 to 29, inclusive, as follows: "Section 13 The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars or as much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to the State Treasurer for the printing and distribution of scrip certificates and stamps issued under the authority of this act."

Amend Section 14, page 11, line 1, by striking out after the word "Section" the figure "14" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "17."

RESOLUTION No. 93

Mr. NOTHNAGLE asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up Resolution No. 93, Printer's No. 1178.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 4, 1933.

Whereas, the need for additional means of communication between southeastern Pennsylvania and southern New Jersey is apparent and

Whereas, A major construction project may be financed in part through monies made available by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation through loans for self-liquidating projects and

Whereas, Such a project will provide employment for a large number of persons in a section of this Commonwealth where unemployment is serious and

Whereas, It is of vital importance that channel approaches to any port shall be free from obstructions which delay and are a hazard to navigation and which will be reflected in freight and insurance rates and

Whereas, Experience has shown that the erection of the Philadelphia-Camden bridge has prevented a number of vessels from passing beneath it causing additional expense and loss in the discharge of cargo and the dispatch of vessels and has occasioned unfavorable comment with respect to the port of Philadelphia therefore be it

Resolved, That the construction of a tunnel under the Delaware River is recommended as entirely feasible and as furnishing a practical and safe means of transit between the shores of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the Department of Highways is directed to make a survey and ascertain the approximate cost of a tunnel under the Delaware River extending from the City of Chester in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to a point on the opposite shore in the State of New Jersey and to make a report thereof to the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five not later than the first day of February one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Section 550 Every person appointed or elected collector of school taxes in any school district of the second third or fourth class in this Commonwealth in addition to any bonds that he may now be required by law to give and before receiving his tax duplicate and warrant to collect said school taxes shall furnish to the school district a proper bond in an amount to be fixed by the board of school directors with such surety or sureties as it may approve conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties as such tax collector In lieu of furnishing such a bond the tax collector may file his own collateral bond in such amount as may be required by the board of school directors secured by an actual deposit with the board of school directors or with any bank or trust company within the Commonwealth which may be agreed upon of any of the securities which depositories may use to secure the deposit of school funds as herein provided The total market value of the securities thus deposited shall equal the amount of the collateral bond Such collateral bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties as tax collector The securities thus deposited shall constitute a trust fund to be available for the satisfaction of any liability accruing upon the collateral bond The securities shall be accompanied by a proper assignment or power of attorney for their transfer Such trust deposit in the event of any depreciation in its value shall be maintained upon request in writing of the board of school directors at the amount provided herein The board of school directors may permit the tax collector to substitute for any one or more bonds or obligations included in any such securities other bonds or obligations as long as the new securities meet the requirements of this act In case any person elected or appointed tax collector shall fail to furnish a proper bond with the proper sureties or securities within fifteen days after his appointment or notice so to do then in any such case the board of school directors shall appoint another suitable person as collector of the school taxes in said district in his place and stead who upon giving the proper bond with the proper sureties or securities required by the provisions of this act shall be the duly authorized person to collect the school taxes in said district for the ensuing school year

Section 22 That Section two thousand seven of said act which was added by Section one of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred twelve) is hereby repealed

Section 23 This act shall become effective immediately upon its passage by the General Assembly and its approval by the Governor

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate some member of the House or some person present who could give us some information in regard to this bill.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman desire to ask any particular question on the bill?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I will be glad to answer any question that I can.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Westrick, will proceed.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask, whether in the section of this bill on page three that provision forbids the issuing of any orders by the president and the secretary of the Board other than those which might save them funds through discounts that might be secured?

Mr. WILSON. It does not, Mr. Speaker. It permits the issuing of orders where a saving of discounts accrues to the district and can only be saved by acting at that time.

Mr. WESTRICK. How would it affect loans that might have been due and were passed over at the last meeting of the school board, that might come due between the times of meetings?

Mr. WILSON. I think it could be taken care of under this provision, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WESTRICK. On page 29 of this bill, Mr. Speaker, Section 14, and particularly that part which was primarily Section 2604, at the bottom of page 29, the first two lines read "Section 2604 is amended to read as follows." What is the sense of that amendment?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, it merely clarifies the language of the law and does not change the law at all.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, section 22, page 38, almost at the end of the bill,—just another question. It says "Section 22 is hereby repealed." Just what does that refer to? I would like to know what section 22, page 38 means. It says "Is hereby repealed." Now, just what are we repealing.

Mr. WILSON. It is an amendment. It is not a repeal, is it?

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, it says that section two thousand and seven of said Act is hereby repealed. What is section two thousand and seven.

Mr. WILSON. I don't have it before me and I can't carry all the sections of the code in my head.

I will give the gentleman my assurance that there is no larceny in this bill. It is a codification and classification of bills introduced by the members of the Legislature and were examined very carefully, and I am sure there is nothing objectionable in the bill.

Mr. Speaker, may I just say to the House that this bill, Senate Bill No. 825, is some of the usual bills passed at each session and it contains a number of the bills introduced by members of the House and embodied in this bill. I have examined it very carefully and I think the bill is all right. I have not seen anything wrong about it nor has any member complained to me about it. It clarifies the law and it takes care of any financial situation which may arise. I wish to give the House my assurance that the bill is all right.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2311 (Senate Bill No. 973), as follows:

A Supplement to the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred thirty-six) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder" defining the liability of public or charitable bodies corporations and institutions to pay workmen's compensation to persons injured in work relief employment and to carry insurance therefor and the rights of persons injured in such employment establishing the State Work Relief Compnsation Fund to provide such compensation in certain cases and providing for the administration of such fund by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund and making an appropriation therefor

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That when used in this act the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them by this section unless the context clearly requires a different meaning

(a) The term "work relief employe" shall mean any person engaged in work for any public or charitable body corporation or institution by direction or assignment of the State Emergency Relief Board or a county emergency relief board or other agency of the State Emergency Relief Board in return for cash or commodities furnished by or through the action of the State Emergency Relief Board as unemployment relief

(b) The term "the act to which this is a supplement" shall mean The Workmen's Compensation Act of one thousand nine hundred and fifteen and all supplements and amendments thereto

(c) The term "work relief employer" shall mean any public or charitable body corporation or institution employing any "work relief employe" as defined in sub-section (a) of this section

Section 2 No compensation shall be payable to injured "work relief employes" during the first twenty-six weeks of disability Provided however That this section shall not apply to injuries compensable under sub-sections (c) and (e) of section three hundred and six or section three hundred and seven of the act to which this is a supplement

Section 3 "Work relief employes" as herein defined are hereby declared to be "employes" of "work relief employers" for all purposes of the act to which this is a supplement Any "work relief employer" who shall desire to be relieved of this liability to such "work relief employe" shall pay into the State Treasury the amounts provided in section four of this act Payments to the State Treasurer of such amounts shall relieve the "work relief employer" of all further obligation for compensation to the "work relief employe" or his dependents and from obligation to carry insurance for such compensation and shall exclude such liability from policies of insurance covering other types of employment

Section 4 Each "work relief employer" contributing to the State Work Relief Compensation Fund shall pay to it twenty-five cents per week for each "work relief employe" used by such "work relief employer" Provided however That the Insurance Commissioner shall from time to time review the adequacy of this rate and modify it as circumstances require

Section 5 The moneys paid into the State Treasury under the provisions of this act shall be kept in a special fund to be known as the "State Work Relief Compensation Fund" The State Workmen's Insurance Fund shall administer the State Work Relief Compensation Fund and shall determine the amounts due from each "work relief employer" collect the amounts so due transfer them to the State Work Relief Compensation Fund and pay out from such fund the amounts due in accordance with the provisions of this act The moneys of the State Work Relief Compensation Fund are hereby expressly appropriated to the State Workmen's Insurance Fund for the purpose of this act As compensation for administration of the State Work Relief Compensation Fund the State Workmen's Insurance Fund shall receive from the said fund seventeen and one-half per centum of the moneys paid from such fund in each month for workmen's compensation medical surgical hospital services supplies and funeral expenses

Section 6 From the State Work Relief Compensation Fund the State Workmen's Insurance Fund shall pay to injured "work relief employes" and their dependents the benefits and compensation prescribed by the act to which this is a supplement as modified by this act Payments of medical surgical hospital services and supplies and funeral expenses may in the discretion of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund be paid upon certificate of the "work relief employer" as herein defined when accompanied by a certificate from the county emergency relief board or other agency of the State Emergency Relief Board certifying that the injury for which claim is made was sustained in the course of work relief employment Compensation payments to injured "work relief employes" or their dependents shall be made only upon a final award of a workmen's compensation referee or the State Workmen's Compensation Board with or without a hearing The State Workmen's Insurance Fund shall not be liable to make any payments under this act from any moneys except the State Work Relief Compensation Fund

Section 7 There is hereby re-appropriated to the State Work Relief Compensation Fund from the funds appropriated or to be appropriated for the biennium beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three to the State Emergency Relief Board the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars

The said sum shall be repaid to the State Emergency Relief Board from the State Work Relief Compensation Fund in such installments and at such times as the Insurance Commissioner shall determine and so much of the moneys in the State Work Relief Compensation Fund as may be necessary are hereby appropriated for that purpose

Section 8 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 9 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill provides that no compensation shall be payable to injured work relief employes during the first twenty-six weeks of disability, providing, however, that it shall not apply to certain kinds of injuries. I submit, members of the House, that men who are asked to work on relief jobs, in order to receive their relief, as is the case in many sections of the State, should not be denied the protection of our Workmen's Compensation laws.

A man might be working for a day or two on a work relief project, and get injured and be laid up for twenty-six weeks and receive no compensation therefore I submit that that is entirely unfair and unjust. It is going backwards. Instead of improving our compensation laws you are weakening them and I ask you to vote no on this bill.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I fear that I do not know too much about this measure except the principles involved. I served as one of a committee appointed by the Speaker to study the questions involved in this measure, as the result of a resolution introduced in the House.

The measure, as now prepared, seeks to save municipalities from an unreasonable situation because of the word relief which they are anxious and willing to give the citizens of those municipalities.

The bill provides that the municipalities shall pay twenty-five cents per week per employe to create a fund from which those unemployed who receive the benefits of the work relief in the municipalities may have some measure of workmens' compensation relief.

From the conversations which I have heard concerning the measure, unless it is passed, the municipalities will have to discontinue offering work relief to the unemployed of their communities. Therefore, it seems to me the measure presents just one question; will you by the defeat of this bill make it impossible for the municipalities to offer and extend work relief to the unemployed citizens, or will you by your vote for the bill permit the municipalities to continue offering and extending work relief to the unemployed.

It seems to me from all of the arguments that I have heard concerning the measure that it deserves your affirmative vote.

Mr. DAVID R. PERRY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, just in pursuance of the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, I would like to bring to the members of this House the story of one of the rural counties of the State who are feeling seriously the depression and the unemployment. In the City of Altoona we have a large number of unemployed men and at the present time they have been notified that under the present law it will be necessary to close up shop or else change the present law. At the present time we have about twelve thousand men that would be affected.

We are notified that the present rate would be $1.00 per man per week, or the equivalent of approximately one hundred and forty-four thousand dollars a year premium that must go out of the relief fund, and we have been compelled to close our doors on the carrying on of any direct relief. I just want to bring this word to you and especially to those men representing districts that are feeling the effect of unemployment.

Unless this bill goes through there will be no means for your community to carry on any direct relief work whatsoever. It is not a question of the merits, it is not a question of changing a law, but it is simply a question of whether you are going to permit your relief agencies to carry on the work or whether you are going to compel them to pay charity funds out in the form of insurance premiums.

This bill was the result of a study of a conference committee appointed by the Speaker of this House.

Just as a representative of one of the rural counties, feeling the effect of the depression equally with any county in the State in the size of their relief problem, I say to you, we will have to close down unless this bill is passed.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not fully familiar with all of the provisions of this bill, but Senator Rice has spoken to me about it.

As I understand this bill it had its origin from a situation that arose in the Borough of Gettysburg, in Adams County, where Senator Rice resides. The unemployment situation there, as I understand it, was this; the compensation board ruled they had to pay $1.00 a week, and in order to spread out the work as far as possible, to give every unemployed a chance to earn a few dollars, they employed them one or two days a week.

Now the price of $1.00 a week compensation seemed exorbitant and to a large extent negatived the purpose of creating such employment. Senator Rice told me that organized labor was opposed to it in its original form but now as amended organized labor has withdrawn its opposition. In order that these municipalities might take care, at least to a certain extent, of the unemployed in that situation.

While I am not in favor as a rule with doing away with the rules of the Workmens' Compensation Board, yet this is a sort of a half step to meet a situation which is that either the work must be discontinued or it must be continued under some modified form of workmens' compensation, and this bill is the result of the study of the conference committee, as before stated.

I believe all in all that we should go along with this bill, because these people in the rural communities are making a sincere effort to help out the distress which now prevails among the unemployed.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I was a member of the sub-committee that assisted in drafting this measure.

The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, has not indicated to the members of the House just what this bill covers. He has only referred to that portion of it which applies to a slight or partial injury. Under this bill all of the benefits of workmens' compensation apply. In a permanent injury the injured receives the full benefit that he would receive under workmens' compensation. In addition to that, in case of death, the beneficiaries receive the full benefit that they would receive under the compensation act.

The only exception to the full benefits of workmens' compensation is in the case of an injury that would only apply for a limited number of weeks, and in that case the injured receives full medical, surgical and hospital care, the same as under compensation. In the meantime the injured is supported by relief so that he will lose nothing whatever—no benefits whatever of the compensation act by coming under the terms of this bill.

In the mean time those slight injuries that result in short time disability are the ones that are expensive in compensation By bringing them under relief orders it brings the rate down, so that it is possible for the various agencies employing relief workers to put them under compensation.

In the absence of the passage of this bill I feel free to say that it is a grave question right now as to whether or not the relief workers would be entitled to any compensation.

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I may say that over the week end I talked to a number of men who are employed on relief work in the city of New Castle. They have, to a man, asked me to support this bill and therefore, I shall vote for it.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I seem to be the only one to oppose this bill. It contains certain provisions that I cannot permit to pass without opposition. I may say that it does have the opposition of organized labor in Pennsylvania.

We are opposed to it because we feel it is weakening the compensation law. The gentleman from Elk has stated that it only limits it in a very small way. If that is the case I cannot understand how it reduces the rate from one dollar to twenty-five cents per week. Apparently the insurance companies feel that the reduction in the amount of compensation relief workers are to receive is sufficient to justify them cutting the rate down to one quarter of the amount now charged. I am not for a moment attempting to justify the asking of one dollar per week. It certainly seems exorbitant, but I do say that the men who are asked to take that cut on their relief vouchers should not be denied the protection of workmen's compensation and that if it means, notifying the insurance companies to cut the rate to one quarter of what it was, then it will mean that the employes are going to lose the three-quarters of what they have been getting under the law as it is. I therefore ask you to vote against this bill.

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just want to call the attention of the members of the House from the rural counties to the fact that this bill affects the second class townships as well as the incorporated municipalities.

In the township in which I reside we have our share of unemployment. The township supervisiors are attempting to give those men one day a week employment under this program. Last week they received the same notice that has been spoken of on the floor here, and have decided that unless this amendment to this act is put through they will be compelled to discontinue all employment of these men.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 780 (Senate Bill No. 7), as follows:

An Act to amend sections ten and thirteen of the act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred nineteen) entitled "An act regulating certain political parties providing for and regulating the nomination of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices the election of delegates and alternate delegates to National party conventions and of certain party officers including State committeemen a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the office of President of the United States and the payment by the several counties and their reimbursement by the State of the expenses of the same authorizing the State committee of a political party to make and to alter amend and revoke rules and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein and repealing inconsistent legislation" as amended requiring the county commissioners to deliver to the election officers in boroughs towns and townships before each primary the assessor's "Original Registry List" and providing that such list be used to determine elector's right to vote in certain cases

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section ten of the act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred nineteen) entitled "An act regulating certain political parties providing for and regulating the nomination of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices the election of delegates and alternate delegates to National party conventions and of certain party officers including State committeemen a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the office of President of the United States and the payment by the several counties and their reimbursement by the State of the expenses of the same authorizing the State committee of a political party to make and to alter amend and revoke rules and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein and repealing inconsistent legislation" which was last amended by section two of the act approved the ninth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred thirty-nine) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 10 The county commissioners shall prepare and furnish to the election officers in each election district in due time for use at the primaries one book of fifty official ballots of each party for every forty and fraction of forty votes cast within the particular election district for the candidate of the particular party who received the largest vote cast for any candidate of such party at any of the last three preceding elections either general or municipal and no additional official ballots shall be furnished any party in any election district unless the number of electors registered and enrolled as members of any particular party in any election district shall exceed the largest vote aforesaid in which case the county commissioners shall furnish official ballots for said party in the ratio aforesaid upon the basis of such enrollment or registration

With the official ballots to be furnished in advance of the primaries the county commissioners shall also furnish and deliver to the election officers specimen ballots for the use of electors at the polls equal in number to one-fifth the whole number of such official ballots said specimen ballots to be printed on colored paper and to be of the same size and form as the official ballots but without any permanent binding or stubs and in addition thereto on the Wednesday preceding every primary the county commissioners shall upon request made at their office there deliver to each candidate whose name is printed on any party ballot or to his authorized representative without charge three specimen ballots of such party for each election district in the county or city or political district thereof in which such candidate may be voted for for the use of such candidate and the watchers whom he may appoint as hereinafter provided

On the back of each specimen ballot for the primary next preceding the election of a President of the United States the county commissioners shall print subdivision (c) of section six of this act

The official ballots shall be attached to stubs which shall be numbered consecutively from one to the highest number to be furnished to each particular election district and bound in books of fifty each which shall be numbered in the order of the numbers of their stubs in the same manner as at elections and the county commissioners shall keep a record of the number of such books and ballots printed and delivered to each election district and of the number of stubs unused ballots and spoiled and cancelled ballots subsequently returned therefrom

In addition to official and specimen ballots as aforesaid the county commissioners shall prepare and furnish to the election officers in due time for use at the primaries sufficient ballot-boxes and other election materials properly numbered for each election district including the assessor's lists or registers known as the "ballot check list" and the "voting check list" respectively and in boroughs town's and townships in addition thereto the assessors revised and completed "Original Registry List" blank forms including forms for the duplicate oaths of the election officers and forms of affidavits for electors desiring assistance in marking their ballots and for those challenged as to their identity party membership residence or bribery to make proof of their right to vote blank tally papers and triplicate return sheets for each party blank statements for general returns of all votes cast blank books for making lists of persons voting with sufficient space for noting their party enrollment printed instructions and notice of penalties for the information of electors and election officers and such other supplies as they are or hereafter may be required by law to furnish to said election officers for use at elections and shall deliver them in the same manner as at elections The said forms blanks books and other supplies shall have printed upon them appropriate instructions and shall be in appropriate form for use at the primaries The county commissioners shall also provide for the opening of the polling-places and for the compensation of the owners thereof and shall see that they are in proper order and provided with voting booths as at elections

The county commissioners shall provide each election district with cards of instructions as aforesaid equal in number to one-fifth of the whole number of official ballots furnished thereto on which shall be printed the last paragraph of section eleven of this act and all of section thirteen hereof and such part of section fourteen as relates to the duties of the election officers after the closing of the polls and such other directions regarding the marking and counting of ballots or the general election laws not inconsistent herewith as the county commissioners may think proper The election officers shall post at least three cards of instructions in the voting room outside of the guard-rail as soon as the polls are open and thereafter give such cards to such persons desiring to vote as shall request the same

Section 2 That section thirteen of said act which was last amended by section one of the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws six hundred thirty-five) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 13 No official ballot shall be taken or detached from its stub in any book of ballots except by an election officer when a person desiring to vote has been found to be a qualified elector entitled to vote as hereinafter stated and not more than one ballot shall be removed at any one time or given to any voter except when a voter inadvertently spoils a ballot and immediately returns it to the election officers for cancellation in which case he may be given another Any person removing any ballot from any book of official ballots except in the manner aforesaid shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to undergo an imprisonment for not more than one year or both at the discretion of the court for each offense

Qualifications of electors entitled to vote at the primary shall be the same as the qualifications of the electors entitled to vote at elections [with] within the election district where the primary is held except that with respect to the payment of taxes it shall be sufficient if an elector shall have paid within two years before the next succeeding election a State or county tax which shall have been assessed at least two months before the said election and paid on or before the day of the primary and in cases where personal registration is required on or before the registration day on which the elector registers Provided That no elector who is not registered and enrolled as a member of a designated political party in accordance with the law requiring such registration and enrollment now or hereafter in force shall be permitted to vote the ballot of such party or any other party ballot at any primary except in cases where an elector of a borough town or township who is twenty-one years of age and under twenty-two whose name does not appear on the registry of voters and who has all the other qualifications to vote except as to the payment of taxes In such cases the elector may declare his party preference and prove his right to vote in the same manner as he would be called upon to do at a general election whereupon he shall be entitled to vote the ballot of such party

Where an elector of a borough town or township claims the right to vote a party ballot although his name does not appear upon the lists of voters known as the "ballot check list" and the "voting check list" or if his name does there appear but is not marked as enrolled in the party whose ballot he claims the right to vote in such cases the inspectors shall refer to the assessor's "Original Registry List" and shall give the claimant the ballot of the party to which such list shows him to be entitled if any The said "Original Registry List" shall after the election be sealed in the envelope with the ballot check list and delivered to the county commissions therewith

Each elector may be challenged and if challenged shall prove the aforesaid qualifications and his identity in the same manner in which electors in the election district in which he offers to vote are or hereafter may be required by law to prove their qualifications or identity on election day except that in cases as in cities of the first second and third classes where personal registrations is required all challenges respecting party membership must be made at the time of such registration and in such cases the designation of the political party of the elector on the register shall be conclusive evidence of such membership at the succeeding primary or primaries In other cases where personal registration is not required as in districts other than in said cities if an elector although enrolled as a member of any particular party is challenged regarding such membership he shall be required to make oath or affirmation that at the last preceding election at which he voted he voted for a majority of the candidates of said party and upon executing such affidavit he shall be entitled to receive and vote the ballot of such party but if he is unable or unwilling to make such affidavit he shall be denied the right to receive such ballot but he shall not be deemed to be guilty of any violation or attempted violation of any law by reason of having asked for a ballot of the party with which he is enrolled

If such last preceding election at which such elector voted was a general election at which Presidential electors were voted for he shall in determining the number of candidates for which he voted thereat count the group of Presidential electors as two candidates

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, with the consent of the sponsor of this bill, I move that it be recommitted to the Committee on Elections for further consideration.

The motion was agreed to.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. The Chair regrets holding the members here so late but it has been necessary on account of some recall resolutions being prepared so that the members would not lose their bills. If there are no objections the Chair is about to declare a recess until 9.30 P. M. The Chair hears none and (at 6.50 P. M.) declares a recess until 9.30 P. M.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 9.30 P. M.

The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1516, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two hundred and two hundred two of the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight), entitled, "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth providing additional penalties for killing fish by pollution or explosions.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I am wondering if this is the bill that provides a fine of ten dollars for every dead fish found, because it seems to me that that is pretty expensive.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would answer the question of the gentleman from Elk by saying that that is the purpose of the bill, for it has been proven that the offending industries have not used ordinary and reasonable means for preventing pollution. They pay the present fine but don't attempt to prevent a repetition of the offense. It is only to take care of those who are unwilling to try to take reasonable means to prevent pollution of the streams. The only thing that can be done is by putting teeth into the law to take care of the unwilling man.

Mr. FLYNN. Perhaps a hundred dollars a dozen would not be too much but ten dollars a piece strikes me as being pretty high.

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, whatever may be the defects in this bill it is the only bill for the preventing of stream pollution with teeth in it that we have ever had presented in this State. We have tried a bill with a hundred-dollar fine for killing fish by poison from factories. It has resulted in the operators of those factories merely paying their fine and then a year hence another. This bill provides something definite, and I say whatever may be the defects, whatever may be its overstepping, I certainly want to say again that it is the only bill to keep our waters pure and clean. Instead of turning our streams into sewers it is the only bill with teeth in it we have ever had for that purpose.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

SENATE INSISTS UPON AMENDMENTS NONCONCURRED IN BY HOUSE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate insists upon its amendments nonconcurred in by the House of Representatives, to House Bill No. 22, entitled:

An Act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorgazination of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant-Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers deputies and employes providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments boards and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the assistants and employes of certain departments boards and commissions shall be determined.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House recede from its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate and concur in the amendments.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I ask that you interpret the meaning of the motion made by the gentleman from Delaware, and state to the House the effect that a negative or an affirmative vote may have upon the motion before the House.

The SPEAKER. It was moved by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, that the House recede from its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 22, Printer's No. 1102, and that the House concur in the amendments. Does the gentleman desire further explanation of the motion?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. No, sir.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, the motion before you now is no different than that motion that was presented by the gentleman from Delaware earlier in the day, except that it contains a few words in addition thereto, namely, that the House recede from its position, but that it does not concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman will tarry just a moment. Does the Chair understand the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, to say that the gentleman from Delaware made a motion to non-concur?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. No, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia repeat his statement?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. I say to the Speaker and the members of the House that the motion now before the House is the same motion as was made this afternoon, namely, that the House concur in the Senate amendments.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to correct the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, and will again repeat for his information and the members of the House. The gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, moved that the House recede from its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate in House Bill No. 22, Printer's No. 1102, and concur in the amendments.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, nothwithstanding the statement made by the Chair, if this House passes the motion now before you the bill will then be in such shape as will send it to the Executive. That is precisely the question that was before this House this morning. The House then in its wisdom, I believe, defeated the motion to concur in the Senate amendments, and by that vote I take it the House was of the opinion that the bill should be sent to a conference committee, in order that any differences between the two Houses might be reconciled and also in order that the House members might intelligently vote on the amendments after they have read them and studied them.

I need add nothing more to that which I said this morning. I believe that which was then stated was definitely and plainly understood. I, therefore, ask the members of this House that they do not vote in the affirmative on this motion.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Snyder, Mr. Surface, a member of this House, just before the roll was called was called into the Governor's office. I think, in all fairness to the gentleman, the Speaker should delay the roll call until the gentleman has a chance to return from the Governor's office.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. I arise to a point of order, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Snyder, Sterling, will state his point of order.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, there is nothing before the House except the question of whether or not this House will concur in the Senate amendments. Whether or not a member is absent from the House is of no moment.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Erie, Mr. McCreary, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, does parliamentary law permit a member to ask for two things at the same time?

The SPEAKER. What does the gentleman from Erie, Mr. McCreary desire?

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am in a quandry.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will endeavor to help the gentleman out of his quandry.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I wish to make a statement and then ask for information.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Erie, Mr. McCreary, desire to talk on the motion before the House?

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I want further information regarding it.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Erie, Mr. McCreary, will state his point of information.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to know whether this motion, or whatever it may be, whether it cannot be placed on the postponed calendar until we know more about what we are voting for. I have in my hand two sets of papers, one is the bill and other is the amendments. On the bill as it came before this House the first time I voted yes. On the amendments as obtained from the Senate I voted no because I did not know what they were and because they came from the Senate I was suspicious.

The SPEAKER. Has the gentleman finished his question of information?

Mr. McCREARY. No, Mr. Speaker. The question of information was that I wanted to know whether this bill was any different than others that have come here and have been placed on the postponed calendar or a conference committee appointed until we knew more about it.

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands now that the gentleman from Erie is asking a question and the Chair regrets that he cannot answer the question, because the Chair cannot anticipate a motion before it is made. Does that answer the gentleman's question?

Mr. McCREARY. Yes, Mr. Speaker, but it don't give me the information I want.

PREVIOUS QUESTION

Mr. STERLING. I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Baker, Hermansen, White, Meredith, Scott, Hamilton, Bechtel, Schrope, Bernhard, Shortz, Mason, Yourishin, Andrews, Snyder, Beech, Schwab, Quinn, Reed, Flanagan, Howard, Welsh and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Witkin and Mr. Sterling, and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendments were concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate that the House has receded from its non-concurrence and has concurred in the amendments made by the Senate.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. HOUGH filed the following reasons for his vote on concurrence in Senate amendments to House Bill No. 22.

Having voted in the affirmative on House Bill No. 22, on final passage, and in the negative on motion to concur on amendment by the Senate, I am now voting to concur with Senate, as I find my desire to have conference committee appointed will not be carried out and that this measure is to take care of necessary salary reductions.

Mr. MALINA filed the following reasons for his vote on concurrence in Senate amendments to House Bill No. 22.

Due to the fact that there is no other Economy measure to substitute for H. B. No. 22 and since the necessary amendments to return the powers of His Excellency the Governor were inserted back, I am compelled to vote for this bill as an economy measure to which I am pledged.

Mr. SURFACE filed the following reasons for his vote on concurrence in Senate amendments to House Bill No. 22.

I vote "aye" on House Bill No. 22 because it is believed to be an economy measure, and the majority of my constituents desire me to vote in this way. Also, it is in accordance with my promise to support every such measure possible. I recognize much in this bill that is objectionable, but it contains a very important feature in the reduction of a number of public offices and salaries.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED RESOLUTION RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced returned resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, January 3, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That this Session of the General Assembly adjourn sine die, (Thursday, April 13) Friday, May 5, 1933, at 12 o'clock noon.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Strike out "Thursday, April 13," and insert in lieu thereof "Friday, May 5"; add the words "at 12 o'clock noon" after the figures "1933".

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

They were concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

(MR. HUTTON IN THE CHAIR)

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 2153, Senate Bill No. 729, entitled

An Act requiring business corporations to furnish reports to shareholders requiring domestic and foreign business corporations to file reports with the Secretary of Internal Affairs giving the Secretary power to prescribe forms and make regulations prescribing penalties providing for certain exemptions and repealing inconsistent acts and parts of acts.

was defeated on final passage on May 3, 1933, be reconsidered.

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, vote on the final passage of the bill?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Cordier, vote on the final passage of the bill?

Mr. CORDIER. I voted in the majority, Mr. Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when this bill was under consideration yesterday I called the attention of the House to the fact that it was, and is, a very important bill, that it is a bill far reaching in its importance. The bill provides that every corporation, no matter how small, must employ a certified public accountant to make an annual statement and that statement shall be filed here at Harrisburg as of record.

Now, aside from the expense of making such a statement, may I call the attention of the members of the House to the face that, in very, very few of the small towns and villages where we have many of our smaller corporations, there is no such a thing as a public accountant or a certified public accountant. The passage of this bill would actually necessitate sending to the city to get such help and the cost would be exorbitant. Then too by having a statement of the affairs of these small business concerns filed in Harrisburg would make the information a matter of public record and open to anyone who desired to examine it. I believe the bill should be voted down.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the information of the gentleman from Elk, the objectionable features are to be removed by amendments and I ask the House to reconsider this bill now so the amendments can be inserted and then the House can vote on the bill again.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2377 (Senate Bill No. 953), entitled:

An Act to further amend section three of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand forty-six), entitled "An Act appropriating the moneys in the Motor License Fund," by making the moneys in the Motor License Fund available for administering the laws, rules and regulations relating to aeronautics.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to explain this bill to the members, because I think that there is a great deal of misunderstanding on this bill.

This is the money with which the Department of Aeronautics is operating. You have passed the Ziesenheim bill, which provided that the Department of Aeronautics should be set up on the Revenue Department. That money, which is taken from the License Fund, is the amount that is estimated that is returned from the sale of gasoline for aeronautic purposes, and therefore it is not the gasoline money that comes from the ordinary automobile user.

If you defeat this bill you will tear down the structure that has been built up. We had the same bill in the 1927, 1929 and 1931 and now in this session, and I trust with that explanation the members will be willing to pass it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—112

Baldi,	Hart,	McGregor,	Shellenberger,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2355 (Senate Bill No. 1340), entitled:

An Act fixing the fee for the analysis of water by the Department of Health

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker, there are very many members absent, and this is a very important bill.

I want to make a statement. Just two years ago in my district we had an epidemic of typhoid fever, which resulted in three deaths, and it was only after we had the State come and make numerous examinations of our wells could we stop the epidemic.

Many of these people could not afford to pay five dollars for an analysis of the water. I wonder if it would not be possible to withhold this bill until more members are present.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman makes the request and there are no objections, this bill will go over to tomorrow's calendar. The Chair hears no objections, and Senate Bill No. 1340 will appear on tomorrow's calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2394 (Senate Bill No. 1470), entitled:

An Act adjourning country treasurers sales of seated and unseated lands in counties of the fourth class to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred thirty-three until the time fixed by law for such sales in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four or any later date to which such sales may be adjourned and suspending existing laws

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 93

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 4, 1933.

Whereas, The need for additional means of communication between southeastern Pennsylvania and southern New Jersey is apparent and

Whereas, A major construction project may be financed in part through monies made available by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation through loans for self-liquidating projects and

Whereas, Such a project will provide employment for a large number of persons in a section of this Commonwealth where unemployment is serious and

Whereas, It is of vital importance that channel approaches to any port shall be free from obstructions which delay and are a hazard to navigation and which will be reflected in freight and insurance rates and

Whereas, Experience has shown that the erection of the Philadelphia-Camden bridge has prevented a number of vessels from passing beneath it causing additional expense and loss in the discharge of cargo the dispatch of vessels and has occasioned unfavorable comment with respect to the port of Philadelphia therefore be it

Resolved, That the construction of a tunnel under the Delaware River is recommended as entirely feasible and as furnishing a practical and safe means of transit between the shores of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the Department of Highways is directed to make a survey and acsertain the approximate cost of a tunnel under the Delaware River extending from the City of Chester in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to a point on the opposite shore in the State of New Jersey and to make a report thereof to the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five not later than the first day of February one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM COMMITTEE

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Resolution, Serial No. 126.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 3, 1933.

Whereas, The work of the Legislature is always delayed at the beginning of each session by reason of the absence of any definite program or tentative plan of legislation to be considered at such session; and

Whereas, The work of every session of this Legislature would be curtailed, its length shortened and the public business greatly expedited if such plan or program could be presented to the members when the session convended; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That five members of the Senate, to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and seven members of the House of Representatives, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House, are hereby constituted a Legislative Program Committee whose duty shall be to meet at least sixty days before the convening of the Regular Session next following their appointment, or at least thirty days prior to each Special Session during their continuance in office, and agree upon and submit to such Regular or Special Session immediately after it convenes a tentative plan of legislation to be considered; and be it

Resolved, That such Legislative Program Committee shall accompany the plan agreed upon with drafts of bills intended to best carry into effect such program; and be it

Resolved, That whenever possible preliminary reports and copies of bills shall be forwarded to members of the Senate and House of Representatives before the convening of the session for the purpose of giving them opportunity to study the same; and be it further

Resolved, That necessary expenses of the members of the Committee and the cost of the preparation and distribution of its reports and copies of preliminary bills shall be provided for by an item to be inserted in the General Appropriation Bill.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I move that the resolution just read be laid upon the table.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSIONERS

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution reported from the Committee on Executive Nominations in reference to Public Service Commissioners.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the Senate, May 4, 1933

Whereas, The Senate at the Special Session of 1932, by resolution constituted a Senate Committee to investigate the affairs of the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the personnel thereof, the work of which Senate Committee has been seriously retarded by Court injunctions; and

Whereas, Action has been taken by the Senate and House of Representatives at this session, continuing said committee in order to enable it to conclude its investigation after the adjournments of the Legislature and to make report to the next session of the Senate; and

Whereas, The Governor has appointed certain persons as members of the Public Service Commission and has issued to said persons commissions of office expiring at fixed dates in the future, and has transmitted the names of such appointees to the Senate for its action provided by law; and

Whereas, The Senate will not be in a position to act intelligently on said appointments made by the Governor until the committee so continued has concluded its investigations and made report thereof to the Senate; and

Whereas, The failure of the Senate to act on said appointments of the Governor at this time will not interfere with the functioning of the Public Service Commission pending the completion of said investigation and the presentation of its report, but will permit the present membership thereof to continue to act until action on said appointments is taken by the Senate in the future; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate at this time withhold action on the approval or disapproval of the appointments of George W. Woodruff, Frederick P. Gruenberg, Clyde L. King, P. Stephen Stahlnecker and C. Jay Goodnough as members of the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, made by the Governor and submitted to the Senate.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the resolution just read be laid upon the table.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not know the purpose of this resolution unless it is that the Senate is afraid to take a stand on the confirmation of these nominations. I do not believe that we can get rid of our Constitutional duty by passing a resolution saying that we are not in a position to act on these nominations. These nominations have been before this Senate for several months, and I am not sure that the Senate wants to go on record and say that we are not in a position to act on these nominations. It is the duty of this Senate either to confirm or not to confirm these nominations. It is the duty of the Senate to act one way or the other or not to act at all. I take it this resolution, coming from the Chairman of the Committee on Executive Nominations, it is the purpose of the Senate not to act at all, and it does seem to me it is a discourtesy and a belittling of the Senate to say that we do not know what to do until the committee on investigation makes its report, which will possibly be two years from now, if ever; and I ask the Senate to vote down the resolution.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I take exception to the remarks of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman. There has been a committee appointed to investigate the Public Service Commission, as set forth in the resolution. The appropriation for this Senate investigation has passed the Senate and House and is in the hands of the Governor. So far as I know, this resolution appropriating this money, or this bill, has not been signed by the Governor. This resolution seems appropriate to me at this time, because if we are supposed to investigate, and we are directed to investigate, the Public Service Commissioners, it is not good judgment to confirm them before that investigation is finished. I would like to see this resolution adopted by the Senate tonight.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Buckman and Mr. Harris, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—25

Armstrong,	Fay,	Norton,	Salus,
Aron,	Frazier,	Owlett,	Scott,
Batchelor,	Gelder,	Parkinson,	Sones,
Bell,	Howell,	Pethick,	Staudenmeier,

NAYS—14

Bennett,	Harris,	Mansfield,	Rice,
Brandt,	Harvey,	Pierson,	Snyder,
Buckman,	Homsher,	Quigley,	Thompson,

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR SENATE BILL No. 454

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 5, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives recalling from the Governor Senate Bill No. 454, Printer's No. 487, for the purpose of amendment.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 454 be laid on the table.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE CAUSE OF THE INCREASING COST IN EDUCATION

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of House Resolution No. 79, reported from the Committee on Education as amended. on May 4.

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1933.

Whereas, The legislation introduced and pending during this Session of the Legislature on school matters has brought to those who have been devoting their time to school affairs a knowledge of the increasing load of taxation for school purposes that is being forced upon the taxpayer, and

Whereas, It has become evident that the property owner can no longer endure the payment of the excessive tax rate that is imposed upon him by reason of the requirements of the school law and that school districts will become bankrupt and their schools closed if no relief is afforded, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a committee of three Senators to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and four Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House is hereby constituted a Legislative Committee to investigate the cause of the increasing cost of education to the school districts and methods whereby such cost can be reduced.

Such committee shall make a report of their investigation to the next Session of the Legislature and shall accompany their report with recommendations of any changes it feels would result in lowering the cost to local communities of conducting their schools and with copies of drafts of bills intended to carry out its recommendations.

The members of said committee shall receive no compensation for their services.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the resolution just read be laid on the table.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, it is well known that the people are distressed by the fact that the situation suggests the probable closing of many of our schools. The taxes have become a burden. The emergency program of building and increasing expenditures in the public schools was perhaps justified by the apparent prosperity that was with us at the time this expenditure began. We are now confronted with a situation where it is necessary to devise some means of cutting down expenditures all along the line and finding out what ought to be done and suggesting remedies that will in a way take care of the situation in the future. We have struggled along in this session and worked earnestly to save the situation as best we could. We wanted an appropriation of five million dollars for the emergency fund to take care of the weak schools, and if we had not had the wise action of the session of the Legislature of 1931 providing for the emergency fund, there would have been many schools in Pennsylvania closed. Our neighboring state of Ohio has many schools that have not been running since the holidays, and to my investigation there were nine hundred schools in the United States closed. To the credit of Pennsylvania and what it was able to do, not a single school in Pennsylvania was closed. We are rather the exception in Pennsylvania. We are a wealthy state. But Illinois is a very wealthy state. We all know what has happened in the city of Chicago and many other cities in the State of Illinos. Patriotic teachers have been teaching without salaries. None in Pennsylvania that I know have taught with the certainty that they are not going to get their salaries. In one of the large school districts in my district they are two months back with the salaries. This resolution does not call for any appropriation. But it certainly is not supported by the Educational Department at Harrisburg. The committee may have counseled with the Department of Education here, as any intelligent committee should do. But I hope the gentlemen of the Senate will not table this resolution, but will pass it. It is an important subject and certainly should be dignified by more than a motion to table it.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, on this closing day of the sesison it seems to me we have neglected some two or three departments on the question of investigation. I do not know why we should not investigate everything and everybody along this line. We have passed resolutions to investigate the Banking Department, Insurance Department, and I do not know how many other departments. We have in committee or on the desk a resolution to investigate the Securities Commission. Now we have before us a resolution to investigate the Educational Department. It is true this is a little resolution carrying no appropriation, but if you will look back you will find that after they have been performing their work or after they have been in existence a few months or a few years, then they come back and want an appropriation to pay their expenses, just the same as an investigating commission which was recently appointed to investigate the poor board in Phialdelphia. They had no appropriation, but I saw on the calendar this present week a bill appropriating money to pay that commssion. If we are going to change the form of our government from that which we now have to government by investigation we ought to pass this resolution, and add a few more to it. It has become almost a joke at this session—resolutions to investigate this department and that department, and this bureau and that bureau; and for the sake of our reputation and for the sake of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania I ask the Senators to vote down this resolution, and if a vote is to be taken, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask that this resolution be read again for the information of the Senate.

The resolution was read as follows:

JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE CAUSE OF THE INCREASING COST IN EDUCATION

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1933.

Whereas, The legislation introduced and pending during this Session of the Legislature, on school matters, has brought to those who have been devoting their time to school affairs, a knowledge of the increasing load of taxation for school purposes that is being forced upon the taxpayer, and

Whereas, It has become evident that the property owner can no longer endure the payment of the excessive tax rate that is imposed upon him by reason of the requirements of the school law and that school districts will become bankrupt and their schools closed if no relief is afforded, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a committee of three Senators, to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and four Members of the House of Representatives, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House, is hereby constituted a Legislative Committee to investigate the cause of the increasing cost of education to the school districts and methods whereby such cost can be reduced.

Such committee shall make a report of their investigation to the next Session of the Legislature and shall accompany their report with recommendations of any changes it feels would result in lowering the cost to local communities of conducting their schools and with copies of drafts of bills intended to carry out its recommendations.

The members of said committee shall receive no compensation for their services.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, just so the members of the Senate vote intelligently on this measure, I would like them to be advised that a vote "aye" means to table the resolution and a vote "no" means an opportunity to vote for the resolution before the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Buckman and Mr. Harris, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—4

Buckman,	Homsher,	Lanius,	Sordoni,

Armstrong,	Einstein,	Miller,	Roberts,
Aron,	Fay,	Norton,	Salus,
Batchelor,	Frazier,	Owlett,	Scott,
Bell,	Gelder,	Parkinson,	Shapiro,
Bennett,	Graff,	Pethick,	Snyder,
Boyd,	Harris,	Pierson,	Sones,
Brandt,	Harvey,	Prince,	Staudenmeier,
Chapman,	Howell,	Quigley,	Thompson,
Clark,	Krause,	Reed,	Trainer,
Coyne,	Mansfield,	Rice,	Williamson,
Ealy,	McClure,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 413

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 413, entitled:

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. OWLETT, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, the following resolution:

JOINT COMMITTEE TO MAKE A STUDY OF THE PROPOSED INSURANCE LAWS

In the House of Representatives, May 1, 1933.

Whereas, Bills codifying and revising the law relating to the Insurance Department and insurance companies have been presented to this session of the legislature and there is not sufficient time for the Senate and House of Represntatives to complete studies of these codes so as to authorize their adoption at this session of the Legislature; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the President pro tempore of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representativs appoint four members of the House who together shall constitute a joint legislative committee whose duty it shall be to study House Bill Number nine hundred twenty-six known as the "Insurance Department Code" and House Bill Number one thousand four hundred known as the "Insurance Code" to prepare such corrections and amendments to said codes as may be deemed necessary and to re-submit said bills with its corrections and amendments to the legislative session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five

Resolved, That an item of two thousand dollars ($2,000) be inserted in the General Appropriation Bill to pay the expenses of the members of said committee

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution just reported.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I shall vote against this resolution because I do not believe it is an accurate statement. I would have no objection whatever to a resolution authorizing a commission to study the Insurance laws of Pennsylvania, but it seems to me that it is a peculiar proceeding to authorize a commission to study a particular code which has never emerged from the Committee on Insurance of the Senate. Therefore I intend to vote "no."

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the point of order is that Rule 39 of the Senate require this resolution to lie over for one day before consideration.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. KRAUSE, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed the following resolution:

JOINT COMMITTEE TO MAKE AN INVESTIGATION OF INSURANCE DEPARTMENT AND INSURANCE COMPANIES

In the House of Representatives, April 27, 1933.

Whereas, Charges have been made of improper practices in the Insurance Department with respect to the doing of business by casualty and fire insurance companies inadequately financed, and with respect to the merger of certain companies and their withdrawal from the State Treasury of assets deposited for the protection of insured persons; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint three Senators, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three Members of the House of Representatives, who, together, shall constitute a joint legislative committee, whose duty it shall be to investigate the affairs and records of the Insurance Department relating to casualty and fire insurance companies, to ascertain whether certain companies are permitted to do business in this Commonwealth when inadequately financed "or otherwise operating in violation of the insurance laws of this Commonwealth," and to ascertain whether mergers or consolidations of casualty companies approved by the Department have been made in accordance with law, and whether securities withdrawn from the Treasury Department, if any, after any such merger or consolidation, have been legally withdrawn;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers records, or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases;

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires concurrent resolutions reported from Committee to lie on the table one day be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just reported from the Committee on Appropriations.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the point of order is that under Rule 39 resolutions having been reported from committee this day must lie over one day before consideration by the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EALY, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as amended, the following resolution:

JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE WAGES AND LABOR CONDITIONS OF CHILDREN IN THE COMMONWEALTH

In the House of Representatives, May 3, 1933.

Whereas, It has been brought to the attention of the Legislature by the public press and by studies of the Department of Labor and Industry, that children are employed under intolerable conditions, and

Whereas, Such children are alleged to be earning as little as one dollar a week, and

Whereas, State and federal relief funds are alleged to be used to subsidize the existence of sweatshops at the expense of the state and of other employers, and

Whereas, It appears that children who should be in school are taking the employment from adults charged with the responsibility of families, and

Whereas, It appears that the low rates of pay accepted by children are lowering wages for adults and that the manufacturing workers in Pennsylvania receive a lower average weekly earning than the same class of employes in any other northern state except New Hampshire, and

Whereas, There is a grave danger that more sweatshops will come into the state following the passage by New York, New Jersey and New Hampshire of minimum wage laws within the past month, therefore,

Be it resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Speaker of the House appoint three members of the House to a special committee to make a study of this situation, that the President of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate and that the Governor be requested to appoint three members from the public at large, and that the Department of Labor and Industry be authorized to delegate representatives to aid in this study, and be it further

Resolved, That said special committee be instructed to report to the General Assembly at its next regular or special session,

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions reported from committee to lie on the table one day, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just reported from the Committee on Judiciary General.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I trust nobody will take advantage of any technicality or that some of my colleagues may forget for the moment their vast knowledge of the rules of the Senate. I ask that favor for this reason: The provisions of this resolution very deeply affect the Sixteenth Senatorial District, where there are conditions prevailing which, in my humble judgment, should have investigation; and since this matter has been brought to us in this form, I hope, Mr. President, that this resolution will receive immediate consideration.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I call the Chair's attention to Rule 39.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions reported from committee to lie on the table one day, be suspended, and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask that each section of the resolution be acted on separately. I regret that the last four lines of this resolution have been deleted from the resolution, and I insist on the motion.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary General, the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, when the Committee on Judiciary General considered this resolution?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, the Committee considered it during last evening and today.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, when they met, and where?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, there was only one member of the committee present. I would like to say to the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, that during the first two sessions I was in the Senate I learned a great deal from the Senator. He was chairman of the important committee of Public Roads and Highways. I think in the two sessions he had possibly one meeting of the committee. Mr. President, I want to say, that I consulted quite a number of the members of the committee with regard to this resolution. It did not seem possible to have a meeting of the committee. I was approached by some of the members of the committee, Senator Harris and others. So I think we had consideration given to this resolution by at least a quorum if not a majority of the committee.

And the question recurring?

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a question of legislative inquiry, and ask whether or not it requires two-thirds of the Senators present to suspend this or any other rule.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, that it requires unanimous consent to suspend Rule 39.

And the question recurring?

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO JOINT COMMITTEE TO MAKE A STUDY OF THE PROPOSED INSURANCE LAWS

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions reported from committee to lie on the table one day, be suspended, and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of House Resolution No. 87.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chairs hears none.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 1, 1933.

Whereas, Bills codifying and revising the law relating to the Insurance Department and insurance companies have been presented to this session of the Legislature and there is not sufficint time for the Senate and House of Representativs to complete studies of these codes so as to authorize their adoption at this session of the Legislature, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint four members of the House, who, together shall constitute a joint legislative committee whose duty it shall be to study House Bill No. 926, known as the "Insurance Department Code," and House Bill No. 1400, known as the "Insurance Code," to prepare such corrections and amendments to said codes as may be deemed necessary, and to resubmit said bills with its corrections and amendments to the legislative session of 1935.

Resolved, That an item of two thousand dollars ($2,000) be inserted in the General Appropriation Bill to pay the expenses of the members of said committee.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE OF JOINT COMMITTEE TO MAKE AN INVESTIGATION OF INSURANCE DEPARTMENT AND INSURANCE COMPANIES

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I renew my request that rule 39, which requires resolutions reported from committee to lie on the table one day, be suspended, and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of House Resolution No. 83.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 27, 1933.

Whereas, Charges have been made of improper practices in the Insurance Department with respect to the doing of business by casualty and fire insurance companies inadequately financied, and with respect to the merger of certain companies and their withdrawal from the State Treasury of assets deposited for the protection of insured persons; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall apoint three Senators, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three Members of the House of Representatives, who, together, shall constitute a joint legislative committee, whose duty it shall be to investigate the affairs and records of the Insurance Department relating to casualty and fire insurance companies, to ascertain whether certain companies are permitted to do business in this Commonwealth when inadequately financed, "or otherwise operating in violation of the insurance laws of this Commonwealth," and to ascertain whether mergers or consolidations of casualty companies approved by the Department have been made in accordance with law, and whether securities withdrawn from the Treasury Department, if any, after any such merger or consolidation, have been legally withdrawn;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall willfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases;

Resolved, That said committee shall make report of its findings to the next session of the General Assembly.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. REED and Mr. SALUS, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—35

Armstrong,	Einstein,	Miller,	Scott,
Aron,	Fay,	Norton,	Shapiro,
Batchelor,	Frazier,	Owlett,	Snyder,
Bell,	Graff,	Pethick,	Sones,

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE DEPARTMENT OF BANKING WITH RESPECT TO CLOSED BANKS

Mr. BELL. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the Resolution relating to closed Banks. This Resolution was reported from committee on May fourth.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 26, 1933.

Whereas, The continued depreciation of the value of securities has brought about a material shrinking of the assets of closed banks now being liquidated by the Department of Banking; and

Whereas, There are many complaints that an unduly large percentage of the assets of corporations in receivership are used up in the expenses of receiverships and in the payment of salaries and fees; and

Whereas, It is the desire of the General Assembly that the assets of closed banks be preserved to the fullest extent for the benefit of depositors therein and creditors; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint three members of the House of Representatives, who, together, shall constitute a joint legislative committee, whose duty it shall be to investigate the affairs of the Department of Banking with respect to closed banks and other closed financial institutions, to ascertain whether the assets of such banks and institutions are being carefully preserved, the affairs of such institutions economically administered, and the assets of such institutions liquidated to the best advantage for the interests of creditors and depositors;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases;

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

HOUSE MESSAGES

be returned to the Governor without amendments.

RESOLUTION RETURNING TO THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL No. 425

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, May 4, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 425, entitled: "An Act making an appropriation to The Glen Mills Schools for Boys, situate in Delaware County, Pennsylvania," be returned to the Governor without amendment.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 102, as follows:

An Act authorizing county treasurers to make execute acknowledge and deliver deeds of seated lands sold for delinquent taxes under the provisions of an act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand six hundred eighty-four) entitled "An act authorizing and empowering the county treasurers of the several counties of this Commonwealth to sell at public sale all seated lands upon which taxes assessed on such seated lands by authority of any county borough town township school district and poor district are delinquent and remain unpaid and fixing penalties for such delinquency authorizing county commissioners to purchase such lands under certain circumstances" prior to its repeal notwithstanding that said deeds were not made issued aknowledged or delivered and surplus bond not given prior to said repeal and authorizing the making execution acacknowledgment and delivery of said deeds by the county treasurers in office and confirming the title to lands so sold where the deeds have been made executed and delivered and the surplus bonds filed since the repeal of said act and whether the said deeds were made executed or delivered by the county treasurer who made said sale during the term of his office or after its expiration or by his successor in office

Whereas Under the provisions of the act approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand six hundred eighty-four) entitled "An act authorizing and empowering the county treasurers of the several counties of this Commonwealth to sell at public sale all seated lands upon which taxes assessed on such seated lands by authority of any county borough town township school district and poor district are delinquent and remain unpaid and fixing penalties for such delinquency authorizing county commissioners to purchase such lands under certain circumstances" the procedure was prescribed for the taking of the bond of the purhaser at said tax sale after confirmation of said sale by the court where the bid exceeded the taxes and costs and declaring it the duty of the county treasurer to make the purchaser a deed in fee simple for the lands so sold to be duly acknowledged in the court of common pleas and

Whereas By the provisions of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws two hundred eighty) the said act approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand six hundred eighty-four) was repealed and prior to the repeal thereof the county treasurers of divers counties in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania had sold seated lands for payment of delinquent taxes under the terms of said act and the purchaser had paid the amount of taxes and costs but said sales owing to exceptions or other reasons not attributable to any fault on the part of the purchaser had not been fully consummated by the execution acknowledgment and delivery of deeds to the purchasers thereof and in certain instances the purchaser had not executed and delivered to the county treasurer the prescribed bond for surplus moneys bid above said taxes and costs and the term of office of some of said county treasurers has expired therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in any and all cases where the county treasurer of any county of this Commonwealth under the provisions of said act of Assembly approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand six hundred eighty-four) entitled "An act authorizing and empowering the county treasurers of the several counties of this Commonwealth to sell at public sale all seated lands upon which taxes assessed on such seated lands by authority of any county borough town township school district and poor district are delinquent and remain unpaid and fixing penalties for such delinquency authorizing county commissioners to purchase such lands under certain circumstances" did prior to the repeal thereof expose to public sale and sold any seated lands in this Commonwealth for said delinquent taxes and the purchaser or purchasers paid to the county treasurer the amount of said delinquent taxes and costs for which the same was sold but the county treasurer failed for any reason to make executive acknowledge and deliver to the said purchaser or purchasers a deed for said lands prior to the repeal of said act approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand six hundred eighty-four) then and in such case the county treasurer in office may within a period of six months after the approval of this act the said purchaser or purchases having first executed and delivered a proper bond for said surplus moneys as prescribed by the terms of said act make execute acknowledge and deliver a good and sufficient deed for said lands so sold for delinquent taxes as aforesaid to the said purchaser or purchasers as fully and to all intents and purposes as though said surplus bond had been given said deed or deeds made executed acknowledged and delivered prior to the repeal of said act

Section 2 In all cases in which the county treasurer of any county within this Commonwealth may have sold seated lands for payment of delinquent taxes under the provisions of the said act approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand six hundred eighty-four) and the purchaser or purchasers paid the amount of his her or their bid or the amount of taxes and costs to the said treasurer but said county treasurer failed for any reason to make or execute or acknowledge or deliver a deed to the purchaser or purchasers for said lands prior to the repeal of said act approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand six hundred eighty-four) but a deed for said seated lands has since been made executed acknowledged and delivered to the purchaser or purchasers by the county treasurer who held the same whether his term of office had expired or he remained in office at the time of said making executing acknowledging and delivery thereof or the said deed was made executed acknowledged and delivered by his successor in office the purchaser or purchasers where the bid had exceeded the amount of taxes and costs having been made and executed a bond to the treasurer for the surplus money prior to the delivery of said deed then the same shall be fully confirmed and approved and the title of the purchaser or purchasers of said lands as valid to all intents and purposes as though the said deeds had been fully and regularly made executed acknowledged and delivered by the then county treasurer and the surplus bond executed and delivered prior to the repeal of said act approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand six hundred eighty-four)

And the amendments thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 640, as follows:

An Act to amend the first "Whereas" clause the first paragraph of article one clause (d) of article two article nine and article ten of section one and section two as amended of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one thousand three hundred fifty-two) entitled "An act providing for joint action by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey in the administration operation and maintenance of bridges over the Delaware River and for the construction of addititional bridge facilities across said river authorizing the Governor for these purposes to enter into an agreement with the State of New Jersey creating a Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission and specifiying the powers and duties thereof including the power to finance the construction of additional bridges by the issuance of revenue bonds to be redeemed from revenues derived from tolls collected at such bridges transferring to said commission all powers now exercised by existing commission created to acquire toll bridges over the Delaware River and making an appropriation" by providing for the appointment of an engineer by the commission authorizing the commission to proceed with the construction of new bridges without the prior authorization of the legislatures of such states if such legislatures or either of them are not in session and providing for the repayment to the Commonwealth of appropriation herein made

Section 1 Be ie enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the first "Whereas" clause the first paragraph of article one clause (d) of article two and article ten of section one of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one thousand three hundred fifty-two) entitled "An act providing for joint action by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey in the administration operation and maintenance of bridges over the Delaware River and for the construction of additional bridge facilities across said river authorizing the Governor for these purposes to enter into an agreement with the State of New Jersey creating a Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission and specifying the powers and duties thereof including the power to finance the construction of additional bridges by the issuance of revenue bonds to be redeemed from revenues derived from tolls collected at such bridges transferring to said commission all powers now exercised by existing commission created to acquire toll bridges over the Delaware River and making an appropriation" are hereby amended to read as follows

Whereas The commission on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania existing by virtue of the act approved the eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamplet Laws one hundred forty-eight) and its supplements and amendments and the commission on behalf of the State of New Jersey existing by virtue of the provisions of the act approved the first day of April one thousand nine hundred and twelve (Chapter two hundred ninety-seven) and its supplements and amendments acting as a joint commission have acquired various toll bridges over the Delaware River between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey and

ARTICLE I

There is hereby created a body corporate and politic to be known as the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission (hereinafter in this agreement called the "Commission") which shall consist of the commissioners on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania provided for by the act approved the eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws one hundred forty-eight) and its supplements and amendments for the acquisition of toll bridges over the Delaware River and of commissioners on behalf of the State of New Jersey provided for by the act approved the first day of April one thousand nine hundred and twelve (Chapter two hundred ninety-seven) and its supplements and amendments for the acquisition of toll bridges over the Delaware River which said commissions have heretofore been acting as a joint commission by virtue of reciprocal legislation

(d) To elect a chairman vice-chairman secretary and treasurer and appoint an engineer The secretary [and] treasurer and engineer need not be members of the commission

ARTICLE IX

The commission shall make annual reports to the Governors and Legislatures of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey setting forth in detail its operations and transactions and may make such additional reports from time to time to the Governors and Legislatures as it may deem advisable.

Wherever the commission after investigation and study shall have concluded plans with estimates of cost and means of financing any new toll bridge across the Delaware River as hereinbefore provided it shall make to the Legislatures of each State at the next sessions thereof a detailed report dealing with the contemplated project [and it shall not be within the power of the commission to construct or erect any such toll bridge until the Legislatures of both States have authorized the commission to proceed with the project outlined in its special report] but such project may nevertheless be proceeded with if the Legislatures of said States or either of them are not in session

ARTICLE X

Whenever particular bonds issued for any bridge or bridges and the interest thereon shall have been paid or a sufficient amount shall have been provided for their payment and shall continue to be held for that purpose the commission shall cease to charge tolls for the use of such bridge and thereafter such bridge shall be a free bridge and shall thereafter be maintained equally at the cost of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey by appropriations made for such purposes as now provided by law for the maintenance of bridges over the Delaware River acquired by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey

Section 2 That section two of said act as amended by the act approved the fifth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws twenty-three) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 2 The sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission to be used by it together with a like appropriation made by the State of New Jersey for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this compact except the operation maintenance improvement or construction of any new toll bridge over the Delaware River The moneys hereby appropriated shall be returned to the Commonwealth and paid into the State Treasury within five years after the completion of the first toll bridge constructed with interest at the rate paid on bonds issued for the construction of that particular bridge The moneys hereby appropriated shall be disbursed upon requisition of the chairman of the commission presented to the Auditor General who shall direct his warrant upon the State Treasurer in the usual manner

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1485 (House Bill No. 1735), entitled:

An Act invoking the police power of this Commonwealth and authorizing Courts of Common Pleas to stay writs of execution to sell real property on foreclosures of first mortgages and on first lien judgments for the period of not exceeding eighteen months in certain cases and providing for the continuance of return days of such writs and authorizing sales without issuance of further writs.

be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I rise upon the floor of this Senate to ask that this motion be voted down. This bill represents the only serious effort on the part of the Senate of Pennsylvania to meet a condition which, in Pennsylvania, is desperate. There can be no purpose in this motion other than to defeat this bill. Yesterday, by a vote of thirty-five to twelve, I think it was, certain amendments which I introduced were written into this bill; and I feel that it is only fair that this bill as amended go to a vote on the floor of the Senate.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Reed and Mr. Boyd, and were as follows, viz:

FOR HONORABLE WARREN R. ROBERTS

Baumer,	Miller,	Scott,	Sones,
Lanius,	Rice,	Snyder,

The PRESIDENT. The Clerks agree in their tally, and the result of the ballot is Honorable Harry B. Scott forty-three and Honorable Warren R. Roberts seven votes. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, has received the vote of the majority of all the members of the Senate and is, therefore, declared elected to the office of President Pro Tempore of the Senate to serve during the interim beginning after this day's session has adjourned.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair appoints the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher, and the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, to escort the Senator from Centre County, Mr. Scott, the newly elected President Pro Tempore of the Senate, to the Bar of the Senate, where the oath of office will be administered by the Honorable John E. Fox, Additional Law Judge of the Twelfth Judicial District.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, we have the honor to present the Honorable Harry B. Scott, of Centre County, the President Pro Tempore Elect of the Senate, prepared to take the oath of office.

The oath of office was accordingly administered.

The PRESIDENT. It is a great pleasure, gentlemen of the Senate, to present to you the new President Pro Tempore of your body. My close contact with this fine gentleman during my service has been agreeable and gratifying, and I know that his association with you will be as much of a pleasure to you as it has been to me.

I present to you the Honorable Harry B. Scott.

Mr. SCOTT. My fellow Senators, ladies and gentlemen, I cannot express my feelings of appreciation for the honor you have conferred upon me by electing me to the office of President Pro Tempore of the Senate of Pennsylvania. I realize and appreciate the responsibility of this office, and, as I said last night at the caucus, it will be my ambition to conduct myself in such a manner as will reflect credit not only upon myself but upon the Senate of Pennsylvania. I have enjoyed the confidence and the association of this fine body, and I know of no finer citizenship than is represented in this Senate of Pennsylvania, and there can be no question about the result, insofar as legislative matters are concerned, with a body of men such as the Senators representing the several districts throughout the Commonwealth. It is indeed a pleasure to serve with you and to help in my meager way to bring about, the legislation that we have all striven to bring about not only for the Commonwealth of Pennsyvlania, but our districts as well; and I again want to assure you that I appreciate this great honor that you have conferred upon me today. I want you to feel free during my term to call upon me at any time I can be of assistance in any way. I thank you.

RECESS

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for ten minutes.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 1067 (HOUSE BILL No. 1412)

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1067 (House Bill No. 1412), entitled: which was recommitted to the Committee on Appropriation.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1067 (House Bill No. 1412).

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1067 (House Bill No. 1412), as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the committee created to investigate the affairs of the special poor districts of Philadelphia and to make report thereon

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of five thousand dollars ($5.000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the committee created by resolution of the House of Representatives at the Special Session of the Legislature in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two for the purpose of investigating the affairs of the special poor districts of the city of Philadelphia and the expenditures by said poor districts of money appropriated by the Talbot Act and to make report of its findings and recommendations to the Legislature of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three said appropriation to be for the payment of the expenses necessarily incurred by said committee in the discharge of its duties for the compensation of clerks stenographers and experts employed by said committee and for postage and all other incidental expenses

Payments from said appropriation shall be made by requisition of the chairman of said committee and must be countersigned by one of the members of the Committee appointed by said resolution to investigate the affairs of the Special Poor Board District of the City of Philadelphia who is now a member of the State House of Representatives upon the Auditor General upon the filing of itemized vouchers in the manner provided by law

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. FAY, from the Committee on Banks and Buliding and Loan Associations, reported as committed, the following resolution:

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE SECURIIES COMMISSION

In the Senate, May 4, 1933.

Whereas, Charges have been made that Members of the Securities Commission have been improperly permitting the sale of certain securities in this State; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint three Senators, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint three Members of the House of Representatives, who together shall constitute a joint legislative committee whose duty it shall be to investigate the affairs and records of the Securities Commission and to ascertain whether securities have been permitted to be sold improperly in this State and to investigate such other matters and affairs of said Commission as the committee deems advisable.

Resolved That said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman, requiring and commanding any person to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the committee shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before it. Any person who shall wilfully neglect and refuse to appear and testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties, provided by the laws of this Commonwealth in such cases.

Resolved, That said committee shall make report of its findings at the next session of the General Assembly.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I move that the resolution just reported be laid on the table.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, my reason for making this motion is that I do not believe it is necessary to investigate this Commission. There has not been any complaint, as far as I know, with regard to the work of this Commission. If there were some evidence presented to the Senate that would bring discredit to the Commission or criticism, I would be in favor of this resolution. Otherwise, I am against it.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, there have been rather serious allegations—charges, perhaps—made against this Commission. I think it properly will be due to them to see if these allegations are correct or if they are in error. If they are in error, the investigating committee would find it out and clear their skirts.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Fay.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Fay, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, what information has the Senator got regarding any improper acts of this Commission that would warrant an investigation?

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I do not thank that this is the time and place to make any direct charges.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, twelve Senators voted in the affirmative, and twenty-two in the negative, whereupon, the motion was determined in the negative.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I as unanimous consent, which requires resolutions reported from committee to lie on the table one day, be suspended, and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of this resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the Senate, May 4, 1933.

Whereas, Charges have been made that Members of the Securities Commission have been improperly permitting the sale of certain securities in this State; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint three Senators, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint three Members of the House of Representatives, who together shall constitute a joint legislative committee whose duty it shall be to investigate the affairs and records of the Securities Commission and to ascertain whether securities have been permitted to be sold improperly in this State and to investigate such other matters and affairs of said Commission as the committee deems advisable

Resolved, That said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman, requiring and commanding any person to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the committee shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before it. Any person who shall wilfully neglect and refuse to appear and testify before said committee shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth in such cases.

Resolved, That said committee shall make report of its findings at the next session of the General Assembly.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 962

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 962, entitled:
